Preface

This book is a history of one part of the Body of Christ known as Calvary Evangelical Lutheran Church, a congregation of the North Carolina Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America located in Concord, North Carolina. This history attempts to record the story of committed people of faith from 1913 to 1997.

In compiling such a history, one must do the hard work of research utilizing all of the existing records possible. Unfortunately, not all records of the congregation remain in existence nor are all existing records complete. A diligent search for all records that could be found was made. Apparently missing were a number of records, as well as all directories and Sunday bulletins through the late 1940's.

Calvary congregation is truly indebted to Bernard William Cruse, Jr., who took on this project single-handedly, volunteering long hours doing the research and entering into the computer all of the data for this work. Simply said, this book would not exist without the faithful work of "Bill" Cruse. It certainly was a labor of love.

A special word of thanks to Mrs. Marge Cruse who graciously permitted much family time to be used in the writing of this history.

As of this writing, Calvary congregation is poised to write the next major chapter in her history, a second re-location! This next chapter prompted the development of this history to the present day in order to record the past as a foundation to the future.

Many people have assisted in editing materials and they are thankfully acknowledged here. Some of them are: Iris Arey, Betty and Harold Black, Mary and Fess Black, Bette and Harry Blume, Jack and Martha Dayvault, Herb and Hazel Eckenrhode, Nancy Haney, Maxine Hatley, John and Bernice Howard, Margaret Noblitt, Gary and Susan Norris, Tom Ramseur, Ben Shue, Edith Sides, Alice Ray Sloop, Nell Tarlton, Bill Wiles and Ruth Wynnk.

As pastor of this congregation at this writing, we are all thankful to Almighty God for His wise guidance and shared vision for the future. May we be willing to follow and serve. †

TOMS

Foreword

"But the angel said to the women, 'Do not be afraid, for I know that you seek Jesus who was crucified. He is not here, he has risen!'"

That glorious event of Christ's resurrection from the dead is the driving force for Calvary Church, as well as congregations throughout the land! We have been gifted by the great gift of faith. Faith that Jesus Christ came, suffered, died and rose again that we might live forever. Frankly, that is the best news on the planet. And that is the unique story that Calvary Church has been telling since 1913.

The congregation has beautifully acted out their faith by moving to a second location and now planning to move to a third location. Moving a congregation from one place to another is not easy. It has been possible through the great desire of the family of faith at Calvary Church to "better tell" the story and to act out their faith by being as available as possible to witness to that glorious Gospel.

As I think about the history of Calvary Church I become excited about the future. I reflect, in a personal way, on how the family of Calvary Chuch received me as a new pastor in June of 1972, and while I did not know a great deal about ministry, only 24 years old, the people at Calvary Church taught me, through their love and grace, that God inspires and leads. Calvary Church will always be a special place for me! So I thank God for the ministry of Calvary Church in the past, I rejoice in the present ministries underway, and I am delighted as you look toward the future with a new facility in a growing area telling that old, old story that never changes, that we are justified by God's grace through faith!

May God bless you in these days and thank you for allowing me to be a part of this wonderful publication. †

Roots

When our German forebears arrived in North Carolina, most of them after a sojourn in Pennsylvania, they brought with them their prayerbooks and bibles, as well as their strong Lutheran heritage. Almost immediately, as soon as they could get in some crops and get a roof over their heads, they went about establishing schools and churches. By the early 1740s, along with the German Reformed, Lutherans began their worship in a union church which they called the Dutch Creek Meeting House or Dutch Buffalo Creek Church. Today these two churches are still extant as Bethel Bear Creek United Church of Christ and New Bethel Evangelical Lutheran Church. By 1745 they had formed St. John's Lutheran Church in Cabarrus (then Mecklenburg) County and Organ Lutheran Church in Rowan County. For over twenty years they had no regular ministers, depending on itinerant ministers passing through the area and on layperson services. Shortly before the Revolution, these two churches collaborated in sending two men, Christopher Layrle from St. John's and Christopher Rintelmann from Organ, to Germany to secure a minister and school teacher and bring them back to North Carolina to attend to their scholastic and spiritual needs. They were successful in obtaining the services of Reverend Adolph Nussmann and Mr. Johann Gottfried Arends. Before much time had passed, however, Reverend Nussmann realized that there was more spiritual work than could be attended by one minister, so he petitioned and received permission from the German diocese to ordain Mr. Arends as a minister as Arends had all the training and met all the qualifications for ordination. At that point, Reverend Nussmann took over the charge of St. John's and Reverend Arends took over Organ.[1]

By the time of the arrival of Rev. Nussmann and Mr. Arends, a Union Church had been formed about six miles from St. John's with German Reformed and Lutheran members. On August 21, 1768 that congregation had a service performed by Reverend Samuel Suther, noted as the founder of the German Reformed (Now United Church of Christ). Attending that service was Governor Tryon, the King's governor of North Carolina. That congregation is believed to have eventually become Cold Water Lutheran Church, to which, in 1772, was deeded land by Adam Bowers with Martin Phifer as trustee. About the year 1775, "Mr. Nussmann also served, at first, a congregation with an admixture of members of the German Reformed, whose church was located six miles southwest of that on Buffalo Creek."[2]

On Sunday, June 4, 1843, Reverend W. G. Harter of Cold Water Lutheran Church organized a new church in Concord, St. James Evangelical Lutheran with "about sixty members", most of whom came from Cold Water. This was the first Lutheran Church officially organized in Concord, and from which many other Lutheran churches came. A lot was purchased on East Corbin (now Corban) Street January 23, 1845 and a schoolhouse and church were built and a cemetery established. By the year 1880, having outgrown these facilities, they purchased (October 27, 1880) the lot at the corner of South Union and Corbin (now Corban) Streets and built a new church.[3] From the rapid growth at St. James, a mere thirteen years later, their pastor, Rev. W. G. Campbell, started a new church, St. Andrews Evangelical Lutheran, to take some of the western city members from the load at St. James.[4] St. Andrews later became a parish sister church of Calvary. †

Beginnings

And when they were come to the place, which is called Calvary, there they crucified him, and the malefactors, one on the right hand, and the other on the left. (Luke 23:33)[5]

By the year 1910 it was very apparent that the Locke Mill area of "North" Concord needed a new church. The Reverend Dr. Charles Peter MacLaughlin, of St. James Lutheran Church in Concord, began holding services in a small frame building on a corner of the Locke Cotton Mills property sometime in 1912 every other Sunday afternoon.

On March 30, 1913, Calvary Lutheran Church was formally organized with 36 Charter Members. Charter members are noted with an asterisk in the Roll of Members later in this book.

Morning Service was held at 11 o'clock according to arrangements, from the records in the original church book. The Liturgical Service was conducted by Rev. Silas A. Zimbeck, pastor of St. Andrew's. The sermon was preached by Rev. Robert L. Patterson, D.D., pastor of St. Mark's, Charlotte and president of the Home Mission Board of the United Synod.

Sunday School was held at 2:30 P.M., followed by Divine Service at 3:30. Remarks were made by Dr. Patterson, Pastors Zimbeck and MacLaughlin. The Charter Members of Calvary Church were then formally received.

The Congregation proceeded to elect officers, in accordance with the Constitution and resolution of the March 16th meeting. Elected were: Elders, G. W. Petrea, one year; H. B. Wilkinson, two years; Deacons, J. Claude Ketner and J. W. Roberts, one year; J. R. Shive and B. L. Roberts, two years. These elected elders and deacons were duly installed by Pastor MacLaughlin.

At the first council meeting on March 31, H. B. Wilkinson was elected Vice-President, J. R. Shive was elected Recording Secretary, G. W. Petrea was elected Benevolence Fund Treasurer and B. L. Roberts was elected Current Fund Treasurer.

At the May 23, 1913, Regular Council Meeting, Mr. (Later Rev.) Clarence E. Norman, a ministerial student, was appointed to assist Rev. MacLaughlin for three months at a salary of $25 per month. Norman served intermittently until 1915 when the Rev. Bergman S. Dasher was called as regular minister.

At the Regular Council Meeting on October 30, 1913, communications with St. Andrews were started initially regarding establishment of a union between the two churches into a parish (although the name or title of "parish" is not used). Pastors Silas A. Zimbeck of St. Andrews and C. P. MacLaughlin of Calvary drew up By-laws. †

Concord Parish

The Calvary/St. Andrews parish continued as such through Rev. Bergman S. Dasher's pastorate as well as through the pastorates of Revs. Charles H. Day and M. L. Kester until 1928, when Calvary withdrew from the parish and became self-supporting.

On June 6, 1916 J. R. Shive commented in the minute book that because of the fact that the book was not in his hands for the past two years, no regular minutes were recorded and the notes to the council meetings had been lost. "But the Council Meetings was [sic] well attended and Good Reports all the while, there has Been Some Important Business transacted that there is no Account given." On June 18, 1916, J. R. Shive was given a certificate of transfer [destination not entered] and J. C. McEachern elected to serve out his term.

The October 15, 1916 note the first council reference to "the lot in question," undoubtedly the lot on which their first church was built. Discussion continued through all meeting notes for months, and the February, 1917 Council actually named the lot on the "N.E. corner of East McGill and Spring Street." Finally, at the May 20, 1917 meeting, it is noted that "the Locke Cotton Mills Co. have given Calvary E. L. Church the lot and will make the transfer sometime soon."

In the minute book only the month and year are written, except for September, 1917, and with that exception there are no entries from July, 1917 until April, 1918. In August, 1918 B. L. Roberts, G. W. Petrea and H. B. Wilkinson were elected trustees and a building committee was named with the same three.

Finally, in July, 1919, council ordered the building committee and Pastor Charles Howard Day to advertise for bids on the new church.

Charlotte architect Louis Asbury designed two Cabarrus County churches built during the 1920s—St. James Evangelical and Reformed in Mt. Pleasant and Calvary Lutheran's original church in Concord. Both are brick sanctuaries erected by congregations with fewer members than the downtown Concord churches. St. James Reformed displays typical Gothic details including buttressed and crenelated towers and lancet arched windows, but the bracketed eaves and exposed rafters of its gabled side entrance porch introduce a hint of the bungalow style, an idiom rarely seen in church architecture. The design for Calvary Lutheran Church in Concord lacks the eclectic note Asbury introduced at St. James, but exhibits more Gothic details, most notably the façade window, a four-light, four-centered-arched opening with intersecting tracery and fine stained glass, and the molded wooden trusses that support the roof.[6]

In August, 1919, a bid for $15,200.00 was rejected for the construction of the church and new bids were solicited not to exceed $10,000.00. By June of 1920, a Mr. B. G. Ratledge and a Mr. Nail appeared before the council with an estimate of $20,000.00 to build the church. Apparently, these men got the job, for in subsequent meetings payments were approved to them for work and materials.

In September, 1920, Pastor Day resigned and the pulpit was vacant until January, 1921 when Calvary was successful in obtaining Rev. M. L. Kester. At the congregational meeting on November 28, 1920, even a three-month old baby held up his hand to make the call to Rev. Kester unanimous.

Apparently, there was some animosity when Rev. Day left, for in January, 1921, after Rev. Kester took over, he was instructed to contact President of the Synod Rev. J. L. Morgan to try to retrieve some of Calvary's property from Rev. Day. By May, 1921, a previous order was rescinded placing a memorial window in the new church in honor of Rev. Day, and the congregation voted to place a window in honor of Rev. Kester.

On July 19, 1921 council motion prevailed to pay Mr. B. G. Ratledge in full and release him from his contract on building the church.

The first service in the new church was held November 20, 1921, with the Rev. M. L. Kester presiding, according to the parish register.

In 1921 Calvary completed its own building at the corner of North McGill and Buffalo Streets. In October, 1927, Calvary gave a right-of-way to extend Spring St. Northward from Buffalo. Now the church's location became the corner of North Spring and Buffalo Streets.

From the time of its organization until December, 1922, deacons and elders were elected on a yearly basis based on the time of organization. In the late part of 1922 this was changed to an annual calendar basis and has remained since. Sunday School officers were then, and are still appointed in September to relate to a regular school year.

By September, 1923, Calvary evidently was feeling pressure of land needs when the congregation authorized council to purchase the J. V. Stiller property adjacent to the church. This was promptly done at a price of $3,300.00, which the church borrowed from the [Concord] Building and Loan.

First mention of the Lutheran Brotherhood, the men's organization, was made in January, 1925 when they undertook to provide ushers for the services. In previous minutes, council had directly "elected" ushers for the services. (See section on "Men's Organizations.) †

Original Calvary Church Building

On Our Own

On April 15, 1928, Rev. M. L. Kester resigned, and later that month at a congregational meeting, it was unanimously agreed to call Rev. F. M. Speagle. Fortunately, Rev. Speagle accepted the call and Calvary's pulpit was open only until he started his ministry September 15th.

By 1930, according to council minutes, Calvary was beginning to have quite a few problems with the church building, completed in 192 1. References were made about roof leaks and floor sleepers and their repair. Even before then, the congregation had to replace the furnace with a "parlor heater".

Apparently, the entire church was not completed for many years after occupancy, for even as late as August, 1931, council moved to "finish two more of the Sunday School rooms".

Before July 10, 1932 (during the Great Depression), there were several instances when Calvary apparently was not too regular in making its Pastor's Salary, even having to borrow the money at one point on a note signed by all the council to pay the 1931 salary. It was not too much of a shock, then, when in that meeting, Rev. Speagle brought up a call he had received. The council left the matter in his hands, assuring him that his services had been entirely satisfactory, but the congregation just could not afford to keep up his salary. Not surprisingly, on July 15, he resigned, effective August 1.

Calvary's pulpit was vacant for almost two years, supplied by Rev. J. Frank Davis and others. No minutes are available from that time until January, 1933, when Rev. J. Frank Davis was approved as interim minister. Minutes are almost non-existent and are entirely missing from 1934 until 1937. Rev. Glenn A. (Razz) Miller came to Calvary in June, 1934 and resigned in May, 1936, and no minutes are available during his pastorate. Rev. Gilbert B. Goodman became Calvary's pastor on June 11, 1936.

Furnace and heating problems were still evident. By October, 1937, after selling the old furnace for 20¢ per one hundred pounds, Council set Sunday, October 17th as the day to raise money for the new stove, and, at the next meeting, set aside Sunday School offerings on the third Sunday of each month for the stove fund.

By 1944, apparently the stained glass windows in the church had begun to give considerable trouble with leaks, and several council meetings were used to address the problem and seek someone to make the cure.

In May, 1945, Pastor Goodman called a meeting of the council to investigate and examine the damage done to the church by termites. This issue and the problem of expanding the building to meet the congregation's growing needs were the main topics recorded in succeeding months.

At a congregational meeting on August 5, 1945, the resignation of Rev. Gilbert B. Goodman, effective as of August 26th, was accepted. Pastor Goodman had served Calvary for over nine years, and had apparently served well with no dissension ever noted in council's minutes. He had been given a number of increases in salary, almost annually. That same evening the council met with Rev. J. L. Morgan, President of the North Carolina Synod, who suggested the name of Paul B. Cobb, a student at the Seminary from Greensboro, to succeed Pastor Goodman. Mr., (then, Rev.) Cobb accepted the call and was installed later the same year so the pulpit was vacant only a short time. During several Sundays before Rev. Cobb could assume the pulpit, services were conducted by the Rev. W. B. Aull of Landis.

By December, 1945, not long after Pastor Cobb began his ministry, the congregation continued to realize that their facilities were outdated, for the council minutes that month remarked that the Building Fund offering was changed from a monthly to a weekly basis for the addition to the facilities.

In October, 1946, at the urging of Pastor Cobb, confirmation age was raised from 12 to 14 years of age, as the pastor felt that 12 was not mature enough.

Also, in December, 1946, a "Rally Day" was set for donations for the Building Fund, with each member urged to give a day's wages.

In February, 1947, building expansion was still on everyone's minds as council voted that funds raised during Self-Denial offerings during Lent go to the Church Building Fund. March and April minutes indicate that active negotiation was being pursued with Mr. H. C. Craver relating to the construction of an Educational Building. In June, Mr. Craver's sketch was approved after minor changes.

At the May 1, 1949 meeting of council, Rev. Cobb tendered his resignation from Calvary's pulpit, effective July 15th. His resignation was accepted by the congregation on May 15th. At a meeting on June 12, the congregation agreed to call the Rev. Glenn L. Barger who accepted in August; and Pastor Barger began his ministry at Calvary September 1st. Supply during the brief interval between Rev. Cobb and Rev. Barger's ministries was done by Mr. Oscar Kenneth Knight, a theological student, later ordained a Lutheran minister.

In December, 1949, council voted to give $50.00 from the Sunday School treasury to the Concord schools to help support a Bible teacher.

In September, 1950, Pastor Barger notified Calvary that he felt obligated to offer his services to the Navy when the number of Lutherans in service warranted it. The time was not long in coming; early in October he announced that he had been ordered to report as a Chaplain, and tendered his resignation as of October 15th.

In January, 1951, Calvary agreed to pay $200.00 annually in quarterly payments to its sons that were studying at the seminary to become ministers.

The pulpit was vacant from October 15, 1950 until June 1, 1951, when the Rev. Walter N. Yount became pastor.

One of Pastor Yount's first requests, and the council concurred, was that a previous action be rescinded and that persons be allowed to be confirmed at the age of 12 years instead of 14.

By August of 1951, the building fund was active again, to the point that council approved that most Vesper offerings be placed there. †

A New Church

By the fifties, Calvary's congregation and services had so over-crowded the original location that it had to relocate. The city of Concord had also grown considerably Northward. At a called meeting of the council on February 17, 1952, a motion was made and approved to relocate Calvary Lutheran Church to North Concord. This was apparently done again a week later at another called meeting at 10:30 a.m. on February 24th, and, at a congregational meeting following the 11:00 a.m. service, the congregation voted unanimously in favor.

At this same congregational meeting, Pastor Yount brought forth the question of Reorganization of the Congregation and opening the books for Charter Members. A motion was made and carried to this effect.

Rather immediately, interest was shown by a prospect in purchasing the church's property at Spring and Buffalo. In the minutes of March, 1952, the pastor and property committee were instructed to price the property, less the hut, at $40,000.00.

By May, Calvary was talking to architects and beginning to plan the new edifice and the price was cut to $35,000.00 for the present facility.

Congregation voted in July and September to approve plans presented by the church committee.

In January, 1953, council voted to have a "For Sale" sign erected on the Buffalo Street church. In February, Rev. Yount reported to council that the Church of God and the Church of the Nazarene were interested in the church.

After much search and debate, a new location was chosen in the area between Wilmar Park and Beverly Hills, near the Hospital, on Lake Concord Road.

On May 3, 1953 the congregation voted to award the construction contract for the new church to Bumgarner Construction Co., and the plumbing, heating and electrical contract to the L. R. Wensil Co. Enough progress had been made by June 15 that council authorized the first progress payment to Bumgarner, subject to the architect's approval, of $12,242.06, and on July 20th an additional $9,710.46.

About this time, H. B. Wilkinson, charter member, and long-time council member, leader and honorary life member of the council died and left $2,000.00 to Calvary in his will. This money was set aside by the council in August, 1953, until appropriate use for it could be determined. By October, the decision was made to purchase a Baldwin No. 5 Electronic Organ for the new church with these funds, and Mr. Wilkinson's son and daughter, James Wilkinson and Virginia

Wilkinson Studdert agreed to pay the difference in memory of their father.

In September, 1953, apparently for the first time, an Altar Guild was set up with Miss Dora Barnhardt as chairperson.

Calvary's New Home on Lake Concord Road

During the building of the new church, it was discovered that the 38-inch bell in the old church would not fit into the new steeple. Reverend Yount remembered the old bell at then-defunct Mount Pleasant Collegiate Institute where he had been a student thirty years before and obtained that bell for installation in the new Calvary building. M.P.C.I. was originally established by the North Carolina Synod previous to the War Between the States as Western Carolina Male Academy, which later became North Carolina College, then Mount Pleasant Collegiate Institute, all under support and direction of the North Carolina Synod. The bell, originally installed in the bell tower in Mount Pleasant in the 1850s was made by the Webster and Webb Company in Baltimore, Md. and its braces were made by Menally Company of West Troy, N.Y. Efforts made by Pastor Yount in 1953 to contact those companies were unfruitful, so they are presumed to have gone out of business. Financially, Calvary lost money on the deal, as the old M.P.C.I. bell was valued at $250.00 while the newer bell removed from Buffalo Street and traded was valued at $400.00, but the historic value was inestimable.

The new church, completed early in 1954 had their first services February 28, 1954. The first recorded activity in the new church, however, occurred on Thursday, February 25th when Miss Miriam Teal became the bride of Mr. Ralph Drury, Jr. three days before the official opening. Calvary received thirty-nine new members at that dedication service; twenty-four by letter, three by confirmation, two by adult baptism and ten by infant baptism. The "new" church had already begun to grow.

Free Will Baptist Church held a two-week revival in the old church beginning April 11, 1954, and expressed some interest in renting the facility. Subsequently, the old church was rented to Free Will through August, and St. James Catholic church rented it in September. St. James Catholic church, near Cold Water Lutheran Church, had burned, and the congregation was at that time building a new church on North Union Street, two blocks away. Finally, in December, Calvary agreed to sell the facility to the Church of God for $15,000.00, and their old church, which they valued at another $15,000.00. The following June the old Church of the Valley was sold to the Church of the Nazarene for $5,000.00.

In February, 1955, council rescinded the action taken in February, 1952 to reorganize the congregation. In April the council continued this thought, agreeing to take it to the congregation.

In March, 1955, approval was given by council to organize a kindergarten if details could be worked out.

Because the North Carolina Synod maintained a Beneficiary Aid Fund for ministerial students, in April, 1955, council decided to rescind previous practice of sending $200.00 per year to Calvary's ministerial students.

First mention of a regular church secretary was made in the September, 1959 council minutes, when the pastor was authorized to employ a secretary to be paid $1.00 per hour as needed. Apparently, all previous secretarial work had been done on a volunteer basis.

Mrs. Johnsie Scott became the first woman to be nominated for the council of Calvary Church at the November 12, 1961 congregational meeting when she was nominated from the floor. It would be ten years before minutes noted the nomination of another woman to council, when Johnsie Scott would again be nominated along with Ruby St. John.

At a cost of approximately $2,860.00, it was approved by the congregation in April, 1962 to have A. W. Widenhouse pave the parking lot [on the East side of the church].

September 21, 1964, E. R. McKay reported to council that the parking lot debt had been paid in full.

During the period 1963-65 Calvary's pastor, Rev. Walter N. Yount, also served as Vice-Pastor to Cross of Christ at Rimer and Trinity Churches while their pulpits were vacant.

At the congregational meeting on November 12, 1967, council was increased from 12 to 15 members.

In January, 1971, Calvary contracted with the Keasler Company to air-condition the church nave. Previously, the pastor's office had been air-conditioned with a through-the-wall room unit.

The first mortgage on the church was paid in full during March, 1971.

Mrs. Johnsie Scott was elected in November, 1971 to be the first woman to serve on Calvary's Church Council.

Also, in the same month, council was read a letter of resignation from Pastor Walter N. Yount, effective December 31, 1971. He was appointed by the synod as Vice-Pastor until a new pastor could be secured. Permission was given Vice-Pastor Yount to remain in the parsonage until the Younts' new home was completed. He left his tenure at Calvary with the church in very good financial shape. In a statement to council in January, 1972, Pastor Yount reported a total church indebtedness of $7,320.26. Of this, $1,501.92 was on the church, $2,818.84 on the parsonage and the rest on church improvements.

At the end of January, 1972, Rev. Lonnie Karriker was appointed Vice-Pastor by the North Carolina Synod.

On May 7, 1972 the congregation unanimously voted to call Leonard H. Bolick, a recent graduate of the Southern Seminary at Columbia as their pastor. Rev. Bolick accepted the call and began serving Calvary very shortly afterwards.

On September 10, 1972, Council approved that a monthly newsletter be issued and mailed to all member families.

In December, 1972 Rev. Dr. Walter N. Yount was appointed Pastor Emeritus of Calvary Church.

In November, 1973, Rev. Bolick reported a net gain in membership of 30 persons and a gain of 17 per Sunday in attendance over last year.

In 1975, at least two significant things happened. After some twelve years of operation, the Calvary Kindergarten was discontinued because of the arrival in the public school system of a kindergarten system and discussion was begun on the selling of Calvary's parsonage and giving the pastor a living allowance to provide his own home other than a church-provided parsonage which may or may not suit his requirements. This was accomplished the next year, 1976.

In May, 1979, after several years of discussion, the Organ Task Force proposed installing a Zimmer Pipe Organ to take the place of the organ used since the new church was built in 1953 that was donated by the Wilkinson family. At the Congregational Meeting on June 17th it was voted 87 to 7 to arrange for the installation and financing of the organ, which was then estimated at $44,500.00. Immediately afterward, in August, the congregation approved the expenditure of an additional $6,718.74 to do extensive remodeling including dropping ceilings, painting, papering, and carpeting. These repairs were adjudged needed by the congregation by a vote of 81 to 5.

In late 1979 lay Lectors started being used to read the lessons during the services, first for a three-month trial period, then permanently, and has continued to the present day.

In early 1980 Social Ministry reported on the need for an emergency care facility (for children) and its being set up on South Spring Street. In short order, Calvary became one of the sponsoring congregations. In June, Covenant Presbyterian Church expressed interest in buying the organ to be replaced by the Zimmer pipe organ, but in August it was suggested that it be donated to them. Council approved the gift of the old organ to Covenant in March, 1981.

On May 24, 1981 a dedicatory recital was held for the new Zimmer pipe organ with Dr. Stanley Scheer of Pfeiffer College as guest organist. On August 23 the Congregation elected the first board of trustees for the Endowment Fund of Calvary Lutheran Church. Initial board consisted of E. R. McKay, Tom Ramseur, Ann Ridenhour, Brad Schiele and Richard Shaw.

By 1982 it was known that there were serious needs not being addressed because of space and design limitations of the facilities, so in January, 1983 a "Building and Renovation" committee was established under the chairmanship of Leroy Coffee to forge forward with such renovation as possible. It was during 1983 that Hospice, a program to council and aid families undergoing the terminal illness of one of its members, was started in Concord and originally used Calvary's facilities for their meetings and offices, then used these facilities through 1984, when they obtained space at the hospital.

Also in 1983, Calvary purchased a long-awaited hand bell set and added a hand bell choir.

After at least a year and a half of planning and fact-finding, the "Building and Renovation" Committee's efforts were rewarded at a June congregational meeting that approved a $125,000 plan for renovation. Sadly, at that same meeting, Pastor Leonard H. Bolick's resignation was accepted, effective Sunday, August 19, 1984. In August the Rev. James L. Dougherty, Associate Pastor at St. James, was asked to serve as interim pastor for Calvary.

Good things happened before the middle of 1985 in that all the renovations were completed and dedicated March 17th, and only a month later, Rev. John E. Boyd, Jr. was called and accepted Calvary's call to their pulpit to preach for the first time on June 9th. On September 7th, a surprise 80th birthday party was held in the Fellowship Hall and at that time it was announced that the Fellowship Hall would be named after Pastor Emeritus The Rev. Dr. Walter N. Yount.

The following day, September 8th, Calvary Congregation voted to purchase the property on the West side of the church from Cabarrus Pediatric Clinic for $95,000.00 and rent them 30 parking spaces there as long as CPC remained in their location to the rear of that lot.

In March, 1990, a check for $73,352.84 was presented to Calvary by Ralph Barnhardt, a bequest from the Frank and Carrie Barnhardt estate. Carrie Petrea Barnhardt, one of the Charter Members of Calvary, served for many years as church treasurer. Her husband Frank came to Calvary in May, 1926 and served on Calvary's council most of the thirty-three years between 1927 and 1959. After due consideration, it was decided that a portion of the principal be set aside to fund a Calvary Scholarship Fund for college-bound students.

In early 1990, Council recognized the need for a Director of Christian Education. After several months' discussion, a job description was drawn up and an active search begun. However, since this was to be a part-time position, difficulty was encountered in finding the right person. Mrs. Debbie Wilkinson, then the part-time church secretary, became a full-time Lay Associate, along with her secretarial duties. Her duties continued as secretary and Director of Christian Education and Youth Ministry until August, 1995 when she left Calvary Church. It was not until September, 1996 when a Director of Christian Education, Mrs. Joyce Dayvault Williams was finally found and employed.

In 1991 a trial was started to have youth members without voting privileges of the congregational council. A young lady and a young man, rising seniors in high school, were elected as "youth members". This experiment did not work out well, as these folks were obviously too occupied with school activities, so after only two years, it was abandoned.

By the nineties, Calvary had become absolutely "land-locked" on its one and two-thirds acres on Lake Concord Road. Cramped for space for the size of its congregation, the church had no room to move into other ministries urgently needed and desired. At a called council meeting April 6, 1992, Mr. Robert Wall of the Cabarrus Hospital told council about the hospital's plans to build a parking mall, essentially around the church. He indicated that the hospital would be interested in acquiring the property if Calvary were ever inclined to relocate. By September, 1992, council was actively engaged in getting property appraisals and seeking information on costs of further renovations of the existing building, trying to cover any contingencies. In may, Pastor Boyd asked council for a May meeting of the congregation to approve looking for a new site for Calvary and come back with a decision on renovating or moving.

In making plans to further the renovation or relocation of the church, it was felt by all that Calvary needed to become debt-free in order to expedite those plans. August 21, 1993 was designated as kick-off date for a debt elimination drive. By using available funds in various funds and special gifts from all congregational members and other various fund raisers, including a "FUN(d) FEST" yard sale, this was accomplished in only two months by December 29, 1993. Calvary was now prepared to move forward with a plan that was to become "Venture in Faith."

At the 1994 Annual Congregational meeting, by a vote of 106 for to 28 opposed, the congregation voted to forge ahead with investigating relocation of the church.

Calvary was proud and excited to accept a gift from the Love sisters (Betty L. Baker and Martha L. Cline) of 5.65 acres of land at the corner of Branchview (NC Rte. 136) and Bradley, who made the offer to sell another seven adjoining acres to the church in December 1995. At a congregational meeting on December 31st congregation agreed to ratify an agreement to purchase the seven-acre tract for $700,000.00.

As noted on page 9, at the time that the new church was built on Lake Concord Road, they obtained and installed the bell that originally was in the tower at Mount Pleasant Collegiate Institute in Mount Pleasant. Hearing of the plans of Calvary to possibly relocate, in April, 1996, the Eastern Cabarrus Historic Association, now owners of the old MPCI premises and operators of the Eastern Cabarrus History Museum, contacted Calvary to ask that if they had plans to dispose of that bell, to please give them first chance on obtaining it to restore it to its original location.

Great things were happening during 1996. At a congregational meeting on May 19, Council was authorized to exercise the option on the additional seven acres of land at the proposed new church site, arranging whatever financing might be necessary. To show solidarity, the vote was 92 for and only 11 against. Then only three weeks later, congregation voted to extend a call for part-time Director of Christian Education, Joyce Dayvault Williams. Here, again, congregation demonstrated its solidarity in a vote of 89 for and only 8 against. Mrs. Williams began her work July 3rd and was commissioned at the Fall Festival (Annual Homecoming) October 29th by Assistant to the NC Lutheran Bishop and former Calvary pastor Rev. Dr. Leonard H. Bolick.

A number of committees were set up to carefully investigate apace and other requirements for a new church to assist Griffin and Associates, Architects, in preparing plans for such a new church. This information will also be helpful in negotiating with any prospective buyer of the old property in assessing a fair cost of relocation.

In addition to all the activity with plans for a new church building, adding a DCE and all the other things in 1996, the congregation was thoroughly delighted when, on November 2, their former minister, Rev. Dr. Leonard H. Bolick was elected to a six-year term as Bishop of the North Carolina Synod, ELCA. †

Into the Future

by David Harold Black

The Future Committee was formed in 1995 to assist the Long Range Planning Committee and Church Council in the investigation and evaluation of various scenarios concerning further renovation and/or relocation of the Church facilities.

The committee identified numerous potential sites for relocation, and after extensive study and deliberation, recommended the purchase of a 12.65 acre tract on Branchview Drive so as to insure that the congregation would have a site to build on. The committee recommended relocation as opposed to renovation primarily due to the lack of land at the present site. It was determined that the present property should be marketed for sale, and the committee has been involved in negotiations with Cabarrus Memorial Hospital since mid-1995. It is believed that the hospital is the most potential purchaser.

In order to provide the committee with a realistic view of costs associated with potential site development and new church construction, a building advisory committee was formed in 1996 to plan a new facility on the Branchview Drive site. This initial phase of this process has been completed, with costs estimate of $4.2 to $4.5 million dollars, including the land.

It is anticipated that the proposed future church would include a child-care facility, a large fellowship area with a stage, outdoor play areas for small children as well as an athletic field for older youth, an on-site picnic shelter, and other wooded recreational areas.

The committee believes that relocation is essential to ensure the continued growth and vitality of our congregation. We must be in a position to offer programs within our ministry that allow us to meet the needs of both present and potential members. We must have room for further growth and expansion in the future, and must be able to provide a safe place for our children to play. We believe that the proposed structure and site plan will meet these needs in a positive way, and when built, will position Calvary so as to be able to expand and build on its ministries well into the next century and beyond. †

Parsonages

Calvary has owned at least four parsonages during its eighty-odd years of service. In the council minutes of April 14, 1916, there is a note that "In regard to lot for parsonage", was laid over. Due to lack of minutes for some time thereafter, we do not know where that lot was or what became of it. Calvary must have had a parsonage, however, for during 1917 and 1918 are mentions of "our part" of a "garage account", which was paid off in the report of August 18, 1918. It is possible the church shared a parsonage with St. Andrews. It is also obvious that a parsonage was owned in 1920. When Rev. Day resigned and Calvary was looking for a new pastor, Day was to be offered free use of the parsonage. Also noted is that the called meeting of the council and building committee meeting of May 4, 1921 was held at the parsonage. The next parsonage purchased in 1923, the J. V. Stiller property, was next door to the original church on Buffalo Street. From council minutes, it is evident that this house was aged and inadequate; eventually the pastor moved to a rented home on Georgia Avenue in November, 1947, until the church purchased another home at 163 N. Church St. The final parsonage owned by Calvary was built on Scenic Drive, near the church, in late 1955 and used through the tenure of Pastor W. N. Yount and into the pastorate of Rev. L. H. Bolick, when it was sold and funds invested to provide a "Living Allowance" to Calvary's pastors to provide their own home.

During the period before construction of the original church building of 1920 and 1921, it was obvious from the minutes existing that Calvary did have a parsonage, possibly the one on Buffalo Street. Particularly noted from extant minutes is the fact that the congregation built a garage at the parsonage.

Again, in November, 1923, for probably this same building, Mr. John Query was paid $417.66 for some repairs, and in December, the congregation bought a range and installed it in the parsonage.

In August, 1928, during the vacancy between Rev. Kester and Rev. Speagle, the parsonage was painted "insides and out".

From time to time after that, various problems came before council, such as roof repair, water pipe leaks, etc.

The only accounting available for 1936 was noted in the February, 1937 minutes in which there were repairs made during 1936 on the church and parsonage. $13.05 was paid in church repairs from the current fund and $42.31 on the parsonage, paid by the "Parsonage Rent Account". The reader is to draw his own conclusion as to whether the pastor was still living in the church's parsonage. Also noted in the April, 1937 minutes that the council decided to "let the financial secretaries look after repairing the parsonage".

On September 2, 1940, it was agreed to install hot water in the parsonage.

Almost no mention was further made relating to the parsonage until July, 1947 when it is noted in council minutes that "There was no report from any member as to getting a new parsonage". In August J. M. Ridenhour was charged with looking into selling the old parsonage. In September, Pastor Cobb announced that he had found an available, suitable house on Georgia Avenue, and council agreed to rent it as soon as renovations had been made for a parsonage.

September 28, 1947 the congregation voted against selling the old parsonage by 56 to 27. Accordingly, in November, council voted to let the property committee rent the old parsonage. At the same time, they recommended to the congregation that they buy or build a new parsonage and that the funds be taken from the building fund. Meanwhile, it was agreed to rent Miss Eugenia Lore's house on Georgia Avenue for a parsonage. Transferring building funds to a parsonage fund was defeated by a congregational vote. However, in a December meeting of the congregation, a slim majority of 22 to 17 voted for the resolution. Council decided that this was too slim a margin, in consideration that there were some 70 voting members present at the meeting, and called for another vote at a future meeting. At the subsequent meeting later in the month, congregation first voted 34 to 11 to build or buy a new parsonage, then voted 38 to 6 to transfer building funds to a parsonage fund. By this time, the fund was at $4,632.15.

At the congregational meeting on February 27, 1949, a house was accepted for #7,300.00 at 163 North Church Street (From the Williams Estate). In April council acted to advise Miss Lore that Pastor Cobb would vacate her house on May 1st, but at a council meeting on May 1st, Pastor Cobb resigned the pastorate and lived in the new parsonage but briefly.

Troubles were not over yet with the old parsonage. Even after the coming of Rev. Glenn Barger, it is noted in the September, 1949 minutes that the rent was past due on that building and needed looking into.

Finally, in March, 1951 it was proposed by the property committee that the old parsonage be sold for removal and the lot leveled and planted in grass. In April it was decided to turn the sale over to E. Johnston Irvin, an attorney.

Meanwhile, trouble was developing at the "new" parsonage on Church Street. It developed that Mrs. Walter P. Ritchie, a neighbor on Union Street, might either desire to purchase it or close a driveway through it to the rear of her property. By August, 1951, council made her an offer of $250.00 for the right of way and were given authority to go as high as $500.00. When approached, Mrs. Ritchie asked them what they would take for the property, and when Calvary offered it to her for $12,000.00, she said she would think about it. In March, 1954, she came back expressing interest in buying the parsonage, but no agreement was reached at that time, but later that month it was offered to her for $11,000.00. She came back with an offer of $8,000.00. Council decided to let "Lawyer Cruse" [Bernard W. Cruse, Sr.] go and find out what could be done about the driveway. In April "Miss" Ritchie agreed to sell the right-of-way for $500.00. Council recommended to the congregation that we buy, and they concurred, but at that point she refused to sell at any price and appointed "Lawyer Blackwelder" [Buford Blackwelder] to handle any legal action concerning the driveway. At a called meeting of the congregation on May 9, she had agreed to sell her right-of-way for $750.00. The congregation agreed to pay it, whereupon Spencer Atwell, who was serving as chairman of the negotiating committee, immediately went over and gave her $5.00 before she could change her mind. Evidently "Lawyer Blackwelder" felt some remorse over the whole deal, for he made a $50.00 donation to the church [which was probably his fee]. In September, 1955 the property was sold to a Mrs. Ollie Brantley for $7,000.00.

At the same time that the parsonage was on North Church Street, the property Committee was told to look for a lot on which to build a new parsonage.

Shortly afterward, the Property Committee found a lot that was suitable to council on Scenic Drive, not too far from Calvary. Mr. Frank M. Cline was chosen as builder to build the new parsonage. Finally, in late 1955, Pastor and Mrs. Yount moved into the new parsonage. The parsonage at 308 Scenic Drive was finished and occupied by Rev. and Mrs. Yount in January, 1956.

In November, 1958 the odd 60'x75' lot behind the parsonage was purchased and added to the original lot. After a complaint from the neighbor to the rear of the parsonage, Mr. Irvin, about water runoff onto his property from the parsonage, Calvary offered to sell him the 60'x75' lot for $200.00.

At the conclusion of Rev. Yount's pastorate at the beginning of 1972, since the pulpit was vacant, he and Mrs. Yount were given permission to remain in the parsonage until their new home was completed. After they moved, a survey was made of the parsonage and a complete redecorating, re-roofing, replacing the sidewalk and installing central air conditioning was done before the arrival of Rev. Bolick.

At a Congregational Meeting on May 16, 1976, it was voted to sell the parsonage and place any funds received into a fund to provide a "Living Allowance" for the pastor rather than provide a pasonage for his use. This was regarded as a much more viable arrangement for both the congregation and the pastor, as it would reduce somewhat the expense of furnishing and maintaining a home for the pastor while allowing the pastor to provide and acquire equity in his own, more suitable, home. †

Sunday School

From the beginning, Calvary has had a strong Sunday School. Condensed from the writings of the original organization of Calvary "The success of the Sunday School was assured from the start. The attendance was fine; the teachers and officers were enthusiastic; the whole school evinced an earnestness and devotion that was inspiring. A goodly number of Sunday School Hymnals of the United Synod were received, Augsburg Lesson Helps provided; and every effort made to equip the school with whatever working material was needed. The following were the first teachers in the school: Primary Department, Mrs. C. A. Isenhour, Mrs. H. B. Wilkinson and Mrs. J. W. Roberts; Intermediate Department, G. W. Petrea, C. A. Isenhour, Miss Zula Patterson, James C. McEachern; Adult Classes, W. A. Weishman[29] and Lewis O. Blackwelder".

On December 15, 1918 council decided to let the Sunday School elect its own officers.

Following are names of some of the officers, teachers and musicians gleaned from existing council minute books and annual directories. Admittedly, they are not all here. †

Men's Organizations

Existing are microfilm records and a minute book covering the period from August, 1924 through August, 1931 of the Lutheran Brotherhood, the men's organization previous to the present-day Lutheran Men in Mission. On the local level, this was a group devoted to raising funds for purposes not ordinarily taken care of through offerings and regular budget; providing ushering and maintenance duties and such, and on the Synodical level, raising funds toward the extension of God's Kingdom, such as helping to finance new churches and helping churches in need. †

The first minutes reported that a meeting was held on August 17, 1924 for the purpose of "Organizing a Brotherhood". Initial officers are recognized below. The first group had 21 members.

In the Brotherhood report for 1946, president Sidney Basinger reported that they had a very good and active year. They had meetings honoring the servicemen in the organization, a ladies' night, and a special meeting recognizing the Boy Scouts, whom they sponsored. That year they responded 100% to the Loan and Gift Fund, with contributions from every member amounting to $115.00, ending the year in helping some needy people with gifts of food and so on.

On May 25, 1947, council approved the transfer of $750.00 from the Sunday School Treasury to the Brotherhood to complete the construction of a Boy Scout Building.

In 1958 the Brotherhood became The Men of the Church, but in 1959 they were termed "United Lutheran Church Men."

Resolution of the council at their meeting January 20, 1964: Now therefore, be it resolved that the Church Council of Calvary Lutheran Church, approve of the Lutheran Church men soliciting funds for the Loan and Gift Fund from members of the congregation on an individual basis, in such a way that it does not conflict with the regular budget of the church.

Sometime between 1964 and 1971 the organization name was changed from the Lutheran Brotherhood to Lutheran Church Men.

The Southern District of Lutheran Church Men held a supper meeting at Calvary October 17, 1971.

No minutes are presently available from the above time until January 27th, 1985 when 14 members met at the home of Herb Eckenrhode. Evidently until about that time it was common practice to hold meetings either at one of the men's homes or at one of the local restaurants. At least by August, they started regularly holding their meetings in the Yount Fellowship Hall at the church.

From available minutes, the first annual fish fry was sponsored September 28, 1985 and has been a regular event since that time. Profits from this event have been used to sponsor annual trips of the Confirmand Classes to Lutheridge and to make regular contributions to the North Carolina Lutheran Men Loan and Gift Fund. Through this regular event, Calvary has remained in the top three among North Carolina congregations in donations to the Loan and Gift Fund. Some of the most active "Fish fryers" over recent years have been Harold Black, Odell Garmon, Dave Ireland, Bill Wiles, Paul Wynnk and Harold Yost. Another contributing factor to Calvary's standing in the gifts to the Loan and Gift fund is the "Extra Miler" program started in the late 80s and early 90s. An "Extra Miler" is a member who contributes an extra $100 annually just for this purpose. Of approximately 40 Extra Milers in the State, 8 are from Calvary. The fish fry also has sponsored at least thirty-three life memberships from Calvary men in the North Carolina Lutheran Men in Mission. The date for the annual fish fry was changed to May in 1987 and was held annually in the spring until 1996 when it was changed back to the fall because in the meantime several noteworthy

In November, 1985 the annual convention of the North Carolina Lutheran Men was held at the Parkwood Baptist Church, sponsored by Calvary's Lutheran Men. Calvary youth made a NCLM banner for this occasion, and the ladies prepared a lunch for the Executive Board.

Harry Blume, long active in Calvary's and the state Lutheran Men and Lutheran Men in Mission was installed as the North Carolina state Lutheran Men in Mission President in late 1988 and served two terms in that capacity.

In 1988, through the principal efforts of Ray Dobelstein, Calvary Men in Mission took over the Adopt-A-Highway project to help keep a mile of NC 136 (Branchview Drive) cleaned up and that project has continued to this day.

In the April, 1989 minutes is the first notation of a Picnic Outing sponsored by the Lutheran Men which has become an annual event held at Frank Liske Park. This continues and extends their tradition of golf and fishing outings and the annual fish fry and highway cleanup.

During 1994 Calvary's Men in Mission raised over $3,000 and participated in the building of Cabarrus County's 15th Habitat for Humanity house. Another house was completed in November, 1996. These houses were joint efforts of most of the Lutheran churches in Cabarrus County.

In latter 1996, Harold Yost was elected State President of North Carolina Lutheran Men in Mission. †

Women's Organizations

The council minutes of a called meeting on May, 6, 1930 mentions the Ladies Aid Society and their request (which was apparently accepted) to furnish the Chancel of the Church. In August, 1933, the Ladies Aid Society was approved to have painting done on the outside of the church.

By 1946, it was the Ladies Aid and Missionary Societies. In their report for that year they reported 34 members in the Missionary Society and 39 in the Ladies Aid.

According to the annual 1956 report and 1957 directory, The United Lutheran Church Women had four circles meeting monthly in the homes of the members. In 1958 Mrs. Van Scott was Treasurer.

With Doris Smith as Circle Leader, the Morning Circle began meetings in 1984. And with Pat Schaening as Circle Leader, the Evening Circle began meeting in 1985. for "younger women." During 1985 the Morning Circle took the name "Mary Martha Circle" and the Monday Evening Circle became the "Shepherdess Circle" and the Tuesday Evening Circle became the "Friendship Circle." Friendship disbanded in 1995.

Music and Choirs

First noted mention in the council minutes of a Choir Leader was at their meeting in February, 1930, when Miss Grace Ridenhour was appointed to serve out the remainder of 1930, making it evident that there was a choir leader before then.

Paul B. Cobb, as director of the Church Choirs, presented a report at the end of 1946 in which he mentioned the formation of a Junior Choir in the latter part of 1945 which made great progress during 1946, consisting of 15 high school people. The Junior Choir received beautiful new robes during 1946 from the ladies of the church which were used for the first time at Easter. Well received were two programs by the Senior Choir during the year, one on Good Friday; a musical setting to our Lord's Words on the Cross and the other on the last Sunday before Christmas of various Christmas music. Martha Lou Faggart was organist at that time.

After several attempts to sell the old pump organ in the assembly room it was finally sold in June, 1970 and funds applied to painting the parsonage.

At a called meeting of the council in September, 1971, Miss Becky Untz was engaged as organist and Mrs. George L. Barrier as choir director.

Due to incomplete existing records, there are obviously many who have served the church as organists who have not been picked up in a search of those records existing. †

"The Carilloneurs"

Handbells were ordered from Malmark in May, 1983. In September the first Handbell Choir was organized under the direction of Ken Young. Initially, there were eleven members: Susan Meyer, Nell Tarlton, Deb Hatley, Kathy Schiele, Ric Starnes, Julie Starnes, Vicki Barnhardt, Carolyn Doll, Kathi Hissong, Goldia Cruse and Nancy Haney.

The first performance was given during the Christmas Cantata December 18, 1983.

In February, 1992 Vivian Howard became the interim director after Ken Young's resignation. She served until May, 1992 when Mike Pittard became director.

In November, 1996 the new name of the Adult Handbell Choir became "The Carilloneurs." †

The Youth Tone Chime Choir

The Youth Tone Chime Choir was organized in April, 1995 after a three-octave set of chimes were given to Calvary Church by Robert and Nancy Haney. The first choir was comprised of six youths in grades two through eight who first performed in May, 1995 before the congregation after only four practices.

In September, 1995 practice resumed for the school year with ten players in grades three through eight. They performed several times during that year.

By the fall of 1996 the choir had grown to twenty members and an extra octave of chimes had to be ordered to accomodate the size of the group. †

Kindergarten

The 1957 Annual Report to the congregation stated that during 1956, under the able direction of Mrs. J. R. Shive, the kindergarten had an enrollment of eight, meeting Monday through Friday from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon.

In March, 1955, approval was given by council to organize a kindergarten if details could be worked out.

The 1956 Congregational Report and 1957 Directory reported that the kindergarten was maintained under the able direction of Mrs. J. R. Shive with an enrollment of 8 children.

In its third year in 1958 and its fourth year in 1959, the Kindergarten was still under the direction of Mrs. J. R. Shive.

In August, 1961, Mrs. Shive, Kindergarten director was given permission to erect, at her own expense, a chain-link fence on the lawn at the back side of the church next to the parking lot.

Calvary Lutheran Kindergarten began in September of 1963 with Mrs. Betty Black as director. Prior to that time, a community kindergarten was operated in the church building. The director of this kindergarten moved it to her home beginning with the school year of 1963.

The first year's enrollment consisted of one class in the five year old age group. A four year old group was added the next year. Due to the large number of applicants a second five year old age group was added. The teaching staff consisted of the director and three assistants and extra help as needed. The peak enrollment was forty-eight students.

The kindergarten was absolutely self-supported, even from time to time making then substantial contributions to the church current fund, as noted in a number of Sunday bulletins during the mid sixties.

March 21, 1966, Mrs. Harold (Betty) Black was again appointed teacher of the Calvary Kindergarten for the school year 1966-67 and Mrs. Carl Hatley as assistant. Then on July 27, 1967, when Mrs. Harold Black was again appointed teacher, Mrs. Betty Boykin was named as her assistant.

Mrs. Carrie Barnhardt and Mrs. Margaret Noblitt served as kindergarten treasurers. This was a self-supporting kindergarten that made a monthly contribution to the church budget. Supplies used were purchased with money generated by the kindergarten. In addition, kindergarten funds provided for the carpeting on both stairways, cabinets in the class rooms and playground equipment.

In January, 1972, council approved the re-appointment of then-existing officers and teachers of the kindergarten and continued its work for another year.

By 1974, Pastor Leonard Bolick reported in the annual directory that the kindergarten had forty-eight pupils in the hands of four capable teachers. Director was Mrs. Betty Black.

The kindergarten closed in 1975 when the state of North Carolina began a compulsory kindergarten program in the public schools. †

Luther League

At the end of 1946, the first report was officially presented on the Luther League, reporting on the "Luther League Review" Campaign. During the year Leaguers attended the Annual District Meeting and a Musical Festival, had 5 guest speakers, presented 4 public programs, conducted the annual "Penny Drive" and sent two representatives to the 25th Annual Convention of the Luther League of North Carolina.

In August, 1951 Walter Drury appeared before council to ask that the Luther League be allowed to paint the hut, also that the Luther League be allowed to have square dances in the hut. The council approved painting the hut, and disapproved holding square dances.

Officers for the Luther League listed in the July 29, 1951 Bulletin were President Walter Lee Drury, Vice President Barbara Blackwelder, Secretary Billy Williams, Treasurer Charles Glenn Barger.

Listed in the Sunday Bulletin for June 7, 1953, officers elected were Louise Scott, President; Betty Funderburke, Vice President; Zona Kay Troutman, Secretary; and Phil Yount, Treasurer.

1957 President of the Luther League was Miss Zona K. Troutman; Treasurer was Betty Funderburke and for the Intermediate Luther League, President was Miss Martha Ann Yount and Treasurer was Miss Diana Teal. At that time, there were 25 active members. In 1958, Intermediates and the League were combined into one unit. Jerry Barrier was Treasurer.

1959 sponsors for the Luther League were Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Barrier, Jr., and officers were Miss Cecelia Funderburke, President; Jerry Barrier, Vice-President; Miss Martha Ann Yount, Secretary; and Miss Pat St. John, Treasurer.

In November, 1959 the Luther league was granted permission to paint the upstairs assembly room, paint to be furnished by others.

Senior advisors for the Luther League in 1960 were Mr. and Mrs. E. R. McKay and Junior advisors were Mr. and Mrs. Gary Ridenhour and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cookson. Officers were President Miss Pat St. John, Vice-President Miss Linda Cagle, Secretary Miss Barbara Blackwelder and Treasurer Larry Brown.

Mrs. C. H. Joyner and Mrs. Charles Tarlton were advisors for the Luther League in 1961 and their officers were: President Miss Pat St. John, Vice-President Miss Linda Cagle, Secretary Miss Barbara Blackwelder and Treasurer Larry Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Hawkins were advisors for the Luther League in 1962 and officers were: President Miss Marian Black, Vice-President Clark Howard, Secretary Miss Martha Ann Yount and Treasurer Larry Brown.

In December, 1962, council approved as officers for the Luther League for 1963 President Clark Howard, Vice-President Tamera Hatley, Secretary Carolyn Jean Cline, Treasurer Tony Basinger and Advisors Mr. and Mrs. Richard Shaw and Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Funderburk.

Officers in 1964 were President Miss Tamara Hatley, Vice-President Miss Linda Tarlton, Secretary Miss Ann Perry, Treasurer Tommy Ramseur. Advisors were Mr. and Mrs. Ben Cline and Mrs. Iris Arey.

Officers in 1965 were President Larry Brown, Vice-President Reid Arey, Secretary Miss Barbara Black, Treasurer Miss Ann Perry. Advisors were Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Perry and Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Ezzell.

April 18, 1966, council gave permission to the Luther League to prepare the room above the chapel as a meeting and reception area for youth. Loose offering for November 27, 1966 amounting to $9.42 was given to the Luther League. Apparently this was not enough, for the council voted at their next meeting to give them a check for $25.00. 1966 officers were Reid Arey, President; Winston Ezzell, Vice-President; Betsy Arey, Secretary; Susie Linker, Treasurer.

1967 officers were Reid Arey, President; Daphne Long, Vice-President; Betsy Arey, Secretary and Susie Linker, Treasurer.

1968 officers were Betsy Arey, President; Susie Linker, Vice-Ptresident; Daphne Long, Secretary and Gerri Faggart, Treasurer. Advisors were Mr. and Mrs. W. Boger Long, Jr.

Officers in 1969 were Benny Cline, President; Janice Black, Vice-President; Beverly Black, Secretary; Daphne Long, Treasurer. The January, 1969 council gave Luther League the loose offering on Youth Sunday, January 26, 1969.

1970 officers were Daphne Long, President; Mark Steven Fogleman, Vice-President; Leah Hatley, Secretary and Janice Black, Treasurer. Advisors were Mr. and Mrs. Ben Cline and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stroud.

1971 officers were Mark Sreven Fogleman, President; Vivian Drury, Vice-President, Beverly Black, Secretary; Janice Black, Treasurer. Advisors were Mr. and Mrs. Ben Cline.

1972 officers were Phil Brown, President; Jeff Howard, Vice-President;

Janice Black, Secretary; and Cindy Drury, Treasurer. All loose offering on Palm Sunday, 1972 was given to Luther League for its Penny Parade.

1986 officers of the Senior Group were Stephanie Dobbs, President; Sylvia Ridenhour, Vice-President; Kenny Nash, Secretary; and Angie Hartsell, Treasurer. Junior Group officers were Janet Ridenhour, President; Stevie Barnhardt, Vice-President; Sharyn Smith, Secretary; and Kristen Boyd, Treasurer.

1989 officers were Elizabeth King, President; Matthew King, Vice-President; Janet Ridenhour, Secratary; and David Schiele, Treasurer. †

Scouting Programs

First mention of the Boy Scouts in council minutes was May 5, 1946 when D. L. McEachern requested $50.00 be transferred from the Sunday school treasury to the Scout program.

D. L. McEachern's report to the congregation at the beginning of 1947 reported that: "On August 31, 1945, our Boy Scout troop was organized, and chartered under the laws of Congress with 8 Scouts, 5 Troop Committeemen, and 2 Scoutmasters. Of these 8 Charter Scouts 1 was registered as 1st. class, 3 as 2nd. class and 4 as tenderfoot. When our charter was renewed on August 31, 1946, we registered 16 Scouts, 5 Troop Committeemen, and 3 Scoutmasters. Of the 16 Scouts re-registered at the beginning of our second year 2 have now attained the rank of Star Scout, 8 have reached 2nd. class and the remaining 6 are still in the tenderfoot rank."

In February, 1949, Cecil Funderburke was mentioned as an Assistant Scoutmaster of the troop.

In August, 1950, it was agreed to let the Boy Scouts assist in ushering to earn credits on their Pro Deo Et Patria award (highest scouting award).

David L. McEachern was mentioned in the July 8, 1951 Bulletin as Scoutmaster. He was still serving according to the Bulletin of January 27, 1952.

A Pro Deo Et Patria application was filed for Wayne Ridenhour at the council meeting May 23, 1954.

In the 1957 Church Directory, we note that Scouting was still active, for the treasurer's reports shows a total of receipts and prior balance total of $80.02 and they ended up the year with a balance reported by Treasurer S. C. Atwell of $23.02 on hand. Scoutmaster was C. B. Funderburke and T. S. Brown was assistant. S. C. Atwell was Treasurer. In Cub Scout activities, the Sunday Bulletin of August 19, 1956 reported that Mr. H. L. Grimmett had accepted the position of Cub Master.

The page with Boy Scout activities is missing from the 1958 Directory that we used, but the financial report for that year (1957) shows that they had eight registrations and seven subscriptions to Boys Life, the Boy Scout official magazine and ended up the year with a small balance of $6.69 in the treasury.

In the Directory for 1959, Pastor Yount reported that the Boy Scout Troop, the Cub Scout Troop and a Girl Scout Troop were active, but we had lost our Brownie Troop due to lack of a leader, but in 1960 he reported that the Boy Scout Troop and the Brownies were both active. In Sunday's Bulletin of September 6, 1959, Mrs. William R. Arey and Mrs. Robert Bailey were named leaders of the Brownies.

In the Sunday Bulletin of May 22, 1960, it was reported that Walter Goodnight was elected Scoutmaster and T. S. Brown as Assistant of the Boy Scouts.

The Sunday, March 12, 1961 Bulletin reported that Mrs. T. C. Honeycutt and Mrs. John Boger, Jr. were leader and assistant leader of the Girl Scout Troop and Mrs. Robert E. Barnhardt and Mrs. Johnsie Scott leader and assistant of the Brownies.

There is no mention of Scouting in the 1961 Directory, but in 1962 (for 1961) S. C. Atwell reported eight Mens' Registrations, nine Scout Magazines and ten Boys' Registrations. In the June 17, 1962 Sunday Bulletin, it was reported that Richard Shaw was elected Scoutmaster and Jack Stroud assistant.

In the Sunday bulletin of November 11, 1962, with leadership by Mrs. T. C. Honeycutt, Mrs. Buell Little, Mrs. Wallace Early, Mrs. Sidney Perry and Mrs. Kent Prewitt, Calvary boasted the largest Girl Scout Troop in the city with 32 members in No. 1 and 21 in No. 2, for a total of 53 members. Also Calvary had a Brownie Troop of 17, making a total of 70 girls served in Scouting at Calvary with Mrs. David Lockhart and Mrs. Robert Striker as leaders.

In the 1963 Directory, there is also no report on Scouting other than a report by S. C. Atwell of total receipts during 1962 of $34.84 and an ending balance of $6.13. There is no indication as to the size of the Troop.

The Sunday bulletin of November 8, 1964 recognized the leaders then of the Brownies as Mrs. R. B. Watkins, Jr. and Mrs. A. W. Widenhouse, Jr. Leaders for Troop 23 were Mrs. R. C. Richardson and Mrs. Morris Talton and for Troop 77 were Mrs. Ben Flowe and Mrs. David Lockhart. The bulletin for March 7, 1965 reported that Mrs. R. B. Rankin, Jr. had joined as leader of the Brownies while Mrs. Widenhouse continued and the other leaders of Troop 23 and Troop 77 continued. March 6, 1966 saw the addition of Mrs. Phylis Andrews. On March 10, 1968, the name of Mrs. Robert Sumner was added as another leader who had served "through the years".

In March of 1974 the Boy Scouting program was rejuvenated through the efforts of Harold Yost as Scoutmaster with Robert Haney as Assistant Scoutmaster, and Clark Howard leading the troop committee. The troop started with four boys and eventually grew to a total of 12 boys.

The troop was very active and participated in many district camporees, council camporees, the annual Concord district scout show, and spent a week at Camp John J. Barnhardt each summer. In addition they earned troop camping awards and patches by camping at historical parks and hiking historical trails.

However in early 1978 the troop was disbanded due to being reduced to a total of four boys and because of the absence of potential scouts in the neighborhood and at Calvary. All four of the boys transferred to Troop 600 where they all continued their scouting adventures. This included attending National Jamborees, going to Philmont (the national scout ranch at Cimmaron, New Mexico) and advancing in rank with one, Mark Yost, achieving his Eagle rank and receiving the Pro Deo et Patria award on August 20th. The Council at Calvary allowed Mark to supervise the painting of several rooms at the church (by other scouts) as a part of fulfilling the requirements for earning his Eagle.

The equipment was turned over to the Concord district to be used by other troops that needed it, and the remainder of the funds in the Scout treasury were turned over to Youth Ministry.

Harold Yost and Robert Haney continued in scouting by serving as assistant scoutmasters at Troop 600 for many years. In addition both Harold and Robert were active in the Order of the Arrow, and both served on many occasions as staff members for district and council adult leadership training courses, with Harold being the course director for a training course for new scoutmasters. Robert served as chapter advisor for the local OA chapter for a number of years. Harold attended Woodbadge, and served as assistant scoutmaster for one of the two troops that the council sent to the 1982 National jamboree. In addition, both Robert and Harold were leaders on council trips to Philmont. Both have served, and Harold still serves, on the Concord district Eagle review board.

Other men in Calvary have served in various capacities with other troops in the years after Calvary's troop dissolved, and some of our youth have earned their Eagle rank as a member of those troops. It is hoped that sometime in the not too distant future that an active scouting program for both boys and girls can be reestablished at Calvary. †

(Information for this section was contributed by Harold Yost.)

Benevolence

The first note in the minutes of apportionment or benevolence was at the meeting of council in April 1913, when Calvary agreed to pay its apportionment of $44.20. In 1919, this had increased to $166.00 for the N. C. Synod and the United Synod.

On January 5, 1942 council agreed to transfer $58.50 from the benevolence fund to current to start off the year with a clean slate, and also to pay our balance to the orphan home, seminary and the Lowman Home.

In March, 1945 council voted to pay benevolence in full in a lump sum.

In December, 1949, it was agreed to pay benevolence in full at the first of the year, rather than in quarterly installments, as a surplus existed in the current funds.

The August 5, 1951 council meeting approved paying benevolence in full.

The December 1954 council ruled to apply the Christmas Day offering and the loose change from the following Sunday, if needed, to finish the benevolence payment. The Sunday Bulletin of January 9, 1955 reported that done.

Council passed a motion in November, 1955 to have an altar offering on Christmas Eve to pay off benevolence.

At a called meeting on January 6, 1957, there was a balance in the Benevolence Treasury of $468.74. It was decided to give $150.00 to Holy Trinity Church in Raleigh and give the balance to the emergency appeal of the N. C. Synod.

At a called meeting Sunday, January 5, 1958, council agreed to authorize the treasurer to take whatever was necessary from the current fund (not to exceed $32.00) to pay our Covenent in full.

In September, 1960, council earmarked Sunday School offering for the second Sunday in October to go to Lutheran Homes.

In December, 1995, Calvary paid its Benevolence share to the N. C. Synod in full ($30,937.00) for the first time in over twenty years. †

Baptisms

The beginning records are taken from the baptism logs in the existing Parish Register. Those marked with an asterisk (*) are entered on a later page, and were not done at Calvary, but entered as a record, probably on heresay. The editor does not list parents here, but they are available from regular church records. †

Beverly Hills Seniors

At the September, 1971 meeting of council, it was announced that a Senior Citizens group would like to meet at our church, and was taken under consideration.

There is not much written history of the Beverly Seniors available. By agreement, it is not a function of the church and draws no monetary support from Calvary. To the contrary, it is not unusual for the Beverly Seniors to make contributions to the church.

Ruth Wynnk took over active charge of the group in 1987 with the assistance of her husband, Paul. With an average attendance of twenty to thirty, they introduced a monthly Bingo game for the group with "white elephant" prizes for each game. About fifteen people play the average Bingo game.

On the third Wednesday of each month, the Seniors enjoy video movies accompanied with pop corn. Additionally, in recent years they have made many day trips to interesting places and events. Some of these trips have been to Shackley Springs, the magnificent Calvary Church in Charlotte, J.A.A.R.S. Bible translators and aviation center in Union County, Old Salem (now Winston-Salem), annual WSOC Christmas parties, Lutheridge, annual trips in October to the North Carolina mountains for apples, Myrtle Beach and even trekked to Abbeville, GA for a play by bus.

Some of the attendees at Beverly Seniors' meetings included Bill and Iris Arey, Agnes and Spencer Atwell, Annie Belle Basinger, John and Ollie Berry, Fess and Mary Black, Bill and Marge Cruse, Herb and Hazel Eckenrhode, Roy and Blanche Edsell, Annie Lee Faggart, Jones and Marge Freeze, Cecil and Janie Funderburke, Joyce Hartsell, Carl Hatley, Bud and Martha Joyner, Edith, Bob and Bobbie McKay, Idaline Martin, Del and Louise Parker, Viola Peacock, Colene Perry, Lois Ridenhour, Mary Sloop, Christine Talbert, Ruth Teal, Lola and Will Wilhelm, Billie Wyatt, Ruth and Paul Wynnk, Virginia, Walter and Jessie Yount, and a host of others. †

Information for this section contributed by Ruth Wynnk, Billie Wyatt, Bette Parnell, Iris Arey, Edith Sides and others.

Trivia

A meeting was called of the council on July 7, 1919 to discuss the gift of a lot "lying near the Gibson Mill". It was agreed to try to sell the lot for at least $150.00, and more if possible. In the minutes of September 22, 1919, it was revealed that the lot "in the Wodsworth addition" sold for $125.00.

On May 22, 1927 council met in called session "for the purpose as follows: To whom it may concern, We the Pastor and Council of Calvery [sic] Lutheran Church, Concord, N. C. do hereby certify that B. A. Miller is a member in good standing and of a good moral character." The minutes were signed by M. L. Kester, Pastor and F. E. Barnhardt, Secy. B. A. Miller had been a council person several times and was a council person many times after that date.

Something not shown in Calvary's written records is that Herb and Hazel Eckenrhode furnished the cedar Christmas trees to decorate the chancel from their back yard for the first three years.

In the minutes to the regular council meeting of November 22, 1966, it is incorrectly stated that mention was made that at the congregational meeting held on November 13 for the first time there were no nominations (for council) from the floor. There were in fact at least seven times that no nominations were made from the floor by the congregation in previous years as noted in a study of previous minutes.

The Sunday bulletin of August 27, 1972 announced the first issue of the monthly newsletter which became Rejoice was to be published September 6, 1972.

On September 15, 1980, permission was given to Pastor McLaughlin's [sic] son [grandson] to use the fellowship hall for his parent's 50th wedding anniversary.

At the October 15, 1989 meeting of Lutheran Men in Mission, motion was made, seconded and passed that Calvary's LMM would drop out of the state Adopt-A-Highway program if the KKK was allowed to participate.

Herb Eckenrhode started the tradition of presenting all new members a lapel cross when he gave all the men at the men's prayer breakfast lapel crosses. Following that, he gave them to all the men in Calvary. Not to be out-done, the Women of the Church followed suit by giving them to all the ladies. Then tha pastor took over to present them to all new members. The tradition continues today, and yes, Herb is still furnishing them.

Another cross that has been passed out to all Calvary people was started by Charles Tarlton when he presented aluminum about 1½ inches high crosses to everyone to be carried in pocket or purse. Many members still have Charles' crosses.

Through the fifties and sixties frequent contributors to Calvary, in both cash and other gifts, were Major and Mrs. Roy Webster of Mt. Pleasant. Although never a member of Calvary, Major Webster and Rev. Yount were very close friends and Rev. Yount enjoyed the Websters' friendship throughout their lives.

Interesting comments appear in the regular Sunday Bulletins from time to time and particularily during the tenure of Rev. Dr. Yount. For quite a few years after the new church was built on Lake Concord Road, the parking lot was not paved and then was not marked off into parking spaces. Quite regularily Pastor Yount reminded the people to observe some sort of proper parking to allow others to move in or out. Don't block the driveways. Don't park three deep, blocking the guy in the middle. And on and on. Someone must have stood in a pew at some time, for he regularily remarked that that was a no-no. Another no-no was to put books away before final dismissal or to chatter to your neighbors when seated in the nave. You must observe reverent silence.

Our ministers, by and large, have spoiled us trying to get the service over as soon as possible after noon, but there was one occassion when Pastor Yount had a lot to say. A remark was made from the choir that he overheard like "It's after twelve o'clock and he's still preaching." He promptly turned in the pulpit to the speaker and retorted "Yes, so-and-so, and I intend to finish!" There was only one Pastor Yount, and the mold was destroyed. †

Roll of Members

There are probably some duplications and many omissions in this list, for there are many records missing in the earlier years of Calvary Congregation. Many times it is difficult to determine the given name of women because they were not given in the older records; only by "Mrs." and the husband's given name or initials. Wherever practical, the editor has used editorial license to replace husbands' names or initials with the woman's given name when it is reasonably certain. Also, where a person was referred to by several different names and it is certain that it is the same person, the editor has combined to the most expressive, i. e., Sid Basinger, S. S. Basinger, Sidney Basinger, and Sidney Smith Basinger have all been combined under Sidney Smith Basinger, and similarly, Frank Barnhardt and F. E. Barnhardt have been combined under Frank E. Barnhardt. Names include baptized as well as confirmed members and have been gleaned from any available source, such as council minutes, baptism and confirmation records, Sunday school records, etc. Many dates of admission and deletion of membership are non-existent, so none have been given here as this is not intended to be a certification of membership dates. Included here are all names found, including cradle rolls and baptisms. There are also possibly names that were not actually members, due to uncertainty in the records. Also, where identified, ladies' names are followed in parentheses by their married name, causing some double-listing. †

Guest Ministers

Editor's Note: In the case of certain ministers serving as "Vice-Pastors" during the vacancy of the pulpit or "Pastor Emeritus" such as the Reverend Dr. Walter Yount, their service has not been enumerated on a complete basis in the following list. There are obviously guest ministers who have not been listed due to the incompleteness of existing records, but every effort has been made to get as many as possible from extant Council Minutes, Sunday Bulletins, Annual Directories and other records. †

The Chrismon Tree

CHRISMON is a combination of parts of two words: CHRISt and MONogram. Chrismons were invented by Frances K. Spencer and were first used in the Lutheran Church of the Ascension, Danville, Virginia in 1957, who holds the Trade Mark and Copyright for them. All Chrismon ornaments are made in white and gold to symbolize the purity and majesty of the Son of God. We point to the Christ as the Light of the World by using tiny white lights on the tree.[32]

The Calvary Chrismon tree dates from its first erection in the chancel in 1969 and has been proudly displayed every year since then, often with additional ornaments each year. All who participated in the first Chrismon tree are not remembered at this time, but they included Alice Ray Sloop, and Annie Belle Basinger as the co-ordinators. Each ornament is designed to portray a certain biblical reference, and Chrismons are not limited to the Christmas season. Chrismons are designed for Easter, Advent, Trinity and other seasons, as well as for such events as baptism and the Lord's Supper.

Real trees were used for Calvary's Chrismon Tree until 1992 when an artificial fourteen foot high tree was purchased and used for the first time at the recommendation of the Fire Marshall. †

Constitution

CALVARY LUTHERAN CHURCH
CONCORD, NORTH CAROLINA
AUGUST 20, 1991

PREAMBLE

We, baptized members of the Church of Christ, responding in faith to the call of the Holy Spirit through the Gospel, desiring to unite together to preach the Word, administer the sacraments, and carry out God's mission, do hereby adopt this constitution and solemnly pledge ourselves to be governed by its provisions. In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

Chapter 1.
NAME AND INCORPORATION

C1.01. The name of this congregation shall be Calvary Evangelical Lutheran Church of Concord, North Carolina.

C1.02. For the purpose of this constitution and the accompanying bylaws, the Calvary congregation is hereinafter designated as "this congregation."

C1.03. This congregation shall be incorporated under the laws of the State of North Carolina.

Chapter 2.
CONFESSION OF FAITH

C2.01. This congregation confesses the Triune God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

C2.02. This congregation confesses Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior and the Gospel as the power of God for the salvation of all who believe.

a. Jesus Christ is the Word of God incarnate, through whom everything was made and through whose life, death, and resurrection God fashions a new creation.

b. The proclamation of God's message to us as both Law and Gospel is the Word of God, revealing judgment and mercy through word and deed, beginning with the Word in creation, continuing in the history of Israel, and centering in all its fullness in the person and work of Jesus Christ.

c. The canonical Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are the written Word of God. Inspired by God's Spirit speaking through their authors, they record and announce God's revelation centering in Jesus Christ. Through them God's Spirit speaks to us to create and sustain Christian faith and fellowship for service in the world.

C2.03. This congregation accepts the canonical Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments as the inspired Word of God and the authoritative source and norm of its proclamation, faith, and life.

C2.04. This congregation accepts the Apostles', Nicene, and Athanasian Creeds as true declarations of the faith of this congregation.

C2.05. This congregation accepts the Unaltered Augsburg Confession as a true witness to the Gospel, acknowledging as one with it in faith and doctrine all churches that likewise accept the teachings of the Unaltered Augsburg Confession.

C2.06. This congregation accepts the other confessional writings in the Book of Concord, namely, the Apology of the Augsburg Confession, the Smalcald Articles and the Treatise, the Small Catechism, the Large Catechism, and the Formula of Concord, as further valid interpretations of the faith of the Church.

C2.07. This congregation confesses the Gospel, recorded in the Holy Scriptures and confessed in the ecumenical creeds and Lutheran confessional writings, as the power of God to create and sustain the Church for God's mission in the world.

Chapter 3.
NATURE OF THE CHURCH

C3.01. All power in the Church belongs to our Lord Jesus Christ, its head. All actions of this congregation are to be carried out under his rule and authority.

C3.02. The Church exists both as an inclusive fellowship and as local congregations gathered for worship and Christian service. Congregations find their fulfillment in the universal community of the Church, and the universal Church exists in and through congregations. The Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, therefore, derives its character and powers both from the sanction and representation of its congregations and from its inherent nature as an expression of the broader fellowship of the faithful. In length, it acknowledges itself to be in the historic continuity of the communion of saints; in breadth, it expresses the fellowship of believers and congregations in our day.

Chapter 4.
STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

C4.01. The Church is a people created by God in Christ, empowered by the Holy Spirit, called and sent to bear witness to God's creative, redeeming, and sanctifying activity in the world.

C4.02. To participate in God's mission, this congregation as a part of the Church shall:

a. Worship God in proclamation of the Word and administration of the sacraments and through lives of prayer, praise thanksgiving, witness, and service.

b. Proclaim God's saving Gospel of justification by grace for Christ's sake through faith alone, according to the apostolic witness in the Holy Scripture, preserving and transmitting the Gospel faithfully to future generations.

c. Carry out Christ's Great Commission by reaching out to all people to bring them to faith in Christ and by doing all ministry with a global awareness consistent with the understanding of God as Creator, Redeemer, and Sanctifier of all.

d. Serve in response to God's love to meet human needs, caring for the sick and the aged, advocating dignity and justice for all people, working for peace and reconciliation among the nations, and standing with the poor and powerless, and committing itself to their needs.

e. Nurture its members in the Word of God so as to grow in faith and hope and love, to see daily life as the primary setting for the exercise of their Christian calling, and to use the gifts of the Spirit for their life together and for their calling in the world.

f. Manifest the unity given to the people of God by living together in the love of Christ and by joining with other Christians in prayer and action to express and preserve the unity which the Spirit gives.

C4.03. To fulfill these purposes, this congregation shall:

a. Provide services of worship at which the Word of God is preached and the sacraments are administered.

b. Provide pastoral care and assist all members to participate in this ministry.

c. Challenge, equip, and support all members in carrying out their calling in their daily lives and in their congregation.

d. Teach the Word of God.

e. Witness to the reconciling Word of God in Christ, reaching out to all people.

f. Respond to human need, work for justice and peace, care for the sick and the suffering, and participate responsibly in society.

g. Motivate its members to provide financial support for the congregation's ministry and the ministry of other parts of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

h. Foster and participate in interdependent relationships with other congregations, the synod, and the churchwide organization of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

i. Foster and participate in ecumenical relationships consistent with churchwide policy.

C4.04. This congregation shall develop an organizational structure to be described in the bylaws. The Congregation Council shall prepare descriptions of the responsibilities of each committee, task force, or other organizational groups and shall review their actions.

C4.05. This congregation shall adopt a mission statement and review annually which will provide specific direction for its programs.

Chapter 5.
POWERS OF THE CONGREGATION

C5.01. The powers of this congregation are those necessary to fulfill its purpose.

C5.02. The powers of this congregation are vested in the Congregation Meeting called and conducted as provided in this constitution and bylaws.

C5.03. Only such authority as is delegated to the Congregation Council or other organizational units in this congregation's governing documents is recognized. All remaining authority is retained by the congregation. The congregation is authorized to:

a. call a pastor as provided in Chapter 9;
b. terminate the call of a pastor as provided in Chapter 9;
c. appoint or terminate the appointment of associates in ministry in conformity with the applicable policy of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America;
d. approve the annual budget;
e. acquire real and personal property by gift, devise, purchase, or other lawful means;
f. hold title to and use its property for any and all activities consistent with its purpose;
g. sell, mortgage, lease, transfer, or otherwise dispose of its property by any lawful means;
h. elect its Congregation Council, board(s), and require them to carry out their duties in accordance with the constitution, bylaws, and continuing resolutions; and
i. terminate its relationship with the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America as provided in Chapter 6.

Chapter 6.
CHURCH AFFILIATION

C6.01. This congregation shall be an interdependent part of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America or its successor, and of the North Carolina Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. This congregation is subject to the discipline of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

C6.02. This congregation accepts the Confession of Faith and agrees to the Purposes of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America and shall act in accordance with them.

C6.03. This congregation acknowledges its relationship with the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America in which:

a. This congregation agrees to be responsible for its life as a Christian community.
b. This congregation pledges its financial support and participation in the life and mission of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.
c. This congregation agrees to call pastoral leadership from the clergy roster of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America in accordance with its call procedures except in special circumstances and with the approval of the bishop of the synod.
d. This congregation agrees to consider associates in ministry for appointment to other staff positions in the congregation according to the procedures of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.
e. This congregation agrees to file this constitution and any subsequent changes to this constitution with the synod for review to ascertain that all of its provisions are in agreement with the constitution and bylaws of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America and with the constitution of the synod.

C6.04. Affiliation with the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America may be terminated as follows:

a. This congregation takes action to dissolve.

b. This congregation ceases to exist.

c. This congregation is removed from membership in the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America according to the procedures for discipline of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

d. This congregation follows the procedures outlined in C6.05.

C6.05. This congregation may terminate its relationship with the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America by the following procedure:

a. A resolution indicating the desire of this congregation to terminate its relationship must be adopted at a legally called and conducted special meeting of this congregation by a two-thirds majority of the voting members present.

b. The secretary of this congregation shall submit a copy of the resolution to the synodical bishop and shall mail a copy of the resolution to voting members of this congregation. This notice shall be submitted within 10 days after the resolution has been adopted.

c. The bishop of the synod shall consult with this congregation during a period of at least 90 days.

d. If this congregation, after consultation, still desires to terminate its relationship, such action may be taken at a legally called and conducted special meeting by a two-thirds majority of the voting members present, at which meeting the bishop of the synod or an authorized representative shall be present. Notice of the meeting shall be mailed to all voting members at least 10 days in advance of the meeting.

e. A certified copy of the resolution to terminate its relationship shall be sent to the synodical bishop, at which time the relationship between this congregation and ELCA shall be terminated.

f. Notice of termination shall be forwarded by the synodical bishop to the secretary of this church and published in the periodical of this church.

g. If this congregation was a member of the Lutheran Church in America it shall be required, in addition to the foregoing provisions in C6.05., to receive synodical approval before terminating its membership in the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

h. Congregations that are established by the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America shall be required, in addition to the foregoing provisions in C6.05., to receive synodical approval before terminating their membership in this church.

C6.06. If this congregation is considering relocation, it shall confer with the bishop of the synod in which it is territorially located before any steps are taken leading to such action. The approval of the Synod Council shall be received before any such action is effected.

Chapter 7.
PROPERTY OWNERSHIP

C7.01. If this congregation ceases to exist, title to undisposed property shall pass to the North Carolina Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

C7.02. If this congregation is removed from membership in the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America according to its procedure for discipline, title to property shall continue to reside in this congregation.

C7.03. If a two-thirds majority of the voting members of this congregation present at a regularly called and conducted special meeting of this congregation vote to transfer to another Lutheran church body, title to property shall continue to reside in this congregation. Before this congregation takes action to transfer to another Lutheran church body, it shall consult with representatives of the North Carolina Synod.

C7.04. If a two-thirds majority of the voting members of this congregation present at a regularly called and conducted special meeting of this congregation vote to become independent or relate to a non-Lutheran church body, title to property of this congregation shall continue to reside in this congregation only with the consent of the Synod Council. The Synod Council, after consultation with this congregation by the established synodical process, may give approval to the request to become independent or to relate to a non-Lutheran church body, in which case title shall remain with the majority of this congregation. If the Synod Council fails to give such approval, title shall remain with those members who desire to continue as a congregation of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

Chapter 8.
MEMBERSHIP

C8.01. Members of this congregation shall be those baptized persons on the roll of this congregation at the time that this constitution is adopted and those who are admitted thereafter and who have declared and maintain their membership in accordance with the provisions of this constitution and its bylaws.

C8.02. Members shall be classified as follows:

a. Baptized members are those persons who have been received by the Sacrament of Holy Baptism in this congregation, or, having been previously baptized in the name of the Triune God, have been received by certificate of transfer from other Lutheran congregations or by affirmation of faith.

b. Confirmed members are baptized persons who have been confirmed in this congregation, those who have been received by adult baptism or by transfer as confirmed members from other

Lutheran congregations, or baptized persons received by affirmation of faith.

c. Voting members are confirmed members. Such confirmed members shall have communed and made a contribution of record during the current or preceding year.

d. Associate members are persons holding membership in other Christian congregations who wish to retain such membership but desire to participate in the life and mission of this congregation. They have all the privileges and duties of membership except voting rights and eligibility for elected offices or membership on the Congregation Council of this congregation.

C8.03. All applications for confirmed membership shall be submitted to and shall require the approval of the Congregation Council.

C8.04. It shall be the privilege and duty of members of this congregation to:

a. make regular use of the means of grace, both Word and sacraments;

b. live a Christian life in accordance with the Word of God and the teachings of the Lutheran church; and

c. support the work of this congregation, the synod, and the churchwide organization of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America through contributions of their time, abilities, and financial support as biblical stewards.

C8.05. Membership in this congregation shall be terminated by any of the following:

a. death;

b. resignation;

c. transfer or release;

d. disciplinary action by the Congregation Council; or

e. removal from the roll due to inactivity as defined in the bylaws (By-Laws, Congregation Council, Section 1, d.).

Such persons who have been removed from the roll of members shall remain persons for whom the church has a continuing pastoral concern.

Chapter 9.
THE PASTOR

C9.01. Authority to call a pastor shall be in this congregation by at least a two-thirds majority ballot vote of members present and voting at a meeting regularly called for that purpose. Before a call is issued, the officers, or a committee elected by this congregation to recommend the call, shall seek the advice and help of the bishop of the synod.

C9.02. Only a member of the clergy roster of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America or who has been recommended for it by the synodical bishop may be called as a pastor of this congregation.

C9.03.

a. Consistent with the faith and practice of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, every ordained minister shall:

1) preach the Word;

2) administer the sacraments;
3) conduct public worship;
4) provide pastoral care; and
5) speak publicly to the world in solidarity with the poor and oppressed, calling for justice and proclaiming God's love for the world.

b. Each ordained minister with a congregational call shall, within the congregation:
1) offer instruction, confirm, marry, visit the sick and distressed, and bury the dead;
2) supervise all schools and organizations of this congregation;
3) install regularly elected members of the Congregation Council; and
4) with the council, administer discipline.

c. Every pastor shall:
1) seek out and encourage qualified persons to prepare for the ministry of the Gospel and strive to extend the Kingdom of God in the community, in the nation, and abroad;
2) impart knowledge of this church and its wider ministry through distribution of its periodicals and other publications; and
3) endeavor to increase the support given by the congregation to work of the ELCA churchwide organization and of the North Carolina Synod of the ELCA.

C9.04. The specific duties of the pastor, compensation, and other matters pertaining to the service of the pastor shall be included in a letter of call, which shall be attested by the bishop of the synod.

C9.05.

a. The call of a congregation, when accepted by a pastor, shall constitute a continuing mutual relationship and commitment which, except in the case of the death of the pastor, shall be terminated only following consultation with the synodical bishop and for the following reasons:
1) mutual agreement to terminate the call or the completion of a call for a specific term;
2) resignation of the pastor;
3) inability to conduct the pastoral office effectively in the congregation in view of local conditions, without reflection on the competence or the moral and spiritual character of the pastor;
4) the physical or mental incapacity of the pastor;
5) disqualification of the pastor through discipline on grounds of doctrine, morality, or continued neglect of duty; or
6) the dissolution of the congregation.

b. In the case of alleged physical or mental incapacity of the pastor or ineffective conduct of the pastoral office, it shall be the responsibility of the bishop of the synod, when such difficulties are personally known or have been brought to the synod's attention by an official recital of allegations by the Congregation Council, or by a petition signed by at least one-third of the voting members of the congregation, to investigate such conditions personally in company with a committee of two ordained ministers and one layperson.

c. In case of alleged physical or mental incapacity competent medical testimony shall be obtained. When such disability is evident, the bishop of the synod with the advice of the committee shall declare the pastorate vacant. Upon the restoration of a disabled pastor to health, the bishop of the synod shall take steps to enable the pastor to resume the ministry, either in the congregation last served or in another field of labor.

d. In the case of alleged local difficulties which imperil the effective functioning of the congregation, all concerned persons shall be heard, after which the bishop of the synod together with the committee described in C9.05.b. shall decide on the course of action to be recommended to the pastor and the congregation. If they agree to carry out such recommendations, no further action shall be taken by the synod. If either party fails to assent, the congregation may dismiss the pastor by a two-thirds majority vote of the voting members present at a regularly called meeting after consultation with the bishop.

e. The foregoing procedure shall never be invoked when questions of doctrine, morality, or continued neglect of duty are involved, all such cases being treated as disciplinary matters.

f. If in the course of the proceedings, it should become apparent that the pastoral office cannot be conducted effectively in the congregation being served by the ordained minister due to local conditions, the bishop of the synod may temporarily suspend the pastor from service in the congregation without prejudice and with pay provided through a joint churchwide/synod fund and with housing provided by the congregation.

C9.06. At a time of pastoral vacancy, an interim pastor may be appointed by the bishop of the synod with the consent of this congregation or the Congregation Council.

C9.07. During the period of service, an interim pastor shall have the rights and duties in the congregation of a regularly called pastor and may delegate the same in part to a supply pastor with the consent of the bishop of the synod and this congregation or Congregation Council. The interim pastor and any ordained pastor providing assistance shall refrain from exerting influence in the selection of a pastor.

C9.08. This congregation shall make satisfactory settlement of all financial obligations to a former pastor before calling a successor. A pastor shall make satisfactory settlement of all financial obligations to this congregation.

C9.09. When a pastor is called to serve in company with another pastor or pastors, the privileges and responsibilities of each pastor shall be specified in documents to accompany the call and to be drafted in consultation involving the pastors, the Congregation Council, and the bishop of the synod. As occasion requires, the documents may be revised through a similar consultation.

C9.10. With the approval of the bishop of the synod, the congregation may depart from C9.05.a. and call a pastor for a specific term of years. Details of such calls shall be in writing setting forth the purpose and conditions involved. Prior to the completion of a term, the bishop or a designated representative of the bishop shall meet with the pastor and representatives of the congregation for a review of the call. Such call may also be terminated before its expiration in accordance with the provisions of C9.05.a.

C9.11. The pastor shall keep accurate parochial records of all baptisms, confirmations, marriages, burials, communicants, members received, members dismissed, or members excluded from the congregation, and shall submit a summary of such statistics annually to the synod. The pastor shall be a member of the congregation that has extended the letter of call. In a parish of multiple congregations, the pastor shall hold membership in one of the congregations.

C9.12. The pastor(s) shall submit a report of his or her ministry to the bishop of the synod at least 90 days prior to each regular meeting of the Synod Assembly.

Chapter 10.
CONGREGATION MEETING

Cl0.0l. The annual meeting of this congregation shall be held at a time specified in the by-laws.

C10.02. A special Congregation Meeting may be called by the pastor, the Congregation Council, or the president of this congregation, and shall be called at the written request of 33.3 percent voting members. The call for each special meeting shall specify the purpose for which it is to be held and no other business shall be transacted.

C10.03. Notice of all meetings of this congregation shall be given at the services of worship on the preceding two consecutive Sundays and by mail to all [voting] members at least 10 days in advance of the date of the meeting. The posting of such notice in the regular mail, with the regular postage affixed or paid, sent to the last known address of such members shall be sufficient.

C10.04. The voting members present shall constitute a quorum.

C10.05. Voting by proxy ballot shall not be permitted. Absentee ballots shall be permitted by permission of the Congregation Council. A voting member requesting absentee ballot shall make application to Congregation Council at least seven days prior to the congregational meeting stating his/her need.

C10.06. All actions by the congregation shall be by majority vote except as otherwise provided in this constitution.

C10.07. Robert's Rules of Order, latest edition, shall govern parliamentary procedure of all meetings of this congregation.

Chapter 11.
OFFICERS

C11.01. The officers of this congregation shall be a president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer.
a. Duties of the officers shall be specified in the bylaws.
b. The officers shall be voting members of the congregation.

C11.02. The Congregation Council shall elect its officers and they shall be the officers of the congregation. The officers shall be elected by written ballot and shall serve for one year or until their successors are elected. Their terms shall begin at the close of the Congregation Council meeting at which they are elected.

C11.03. No officer shall hold more than one office at a time. No elected officer shall be eligible to serve more than one term in the same office with the exception of the Treasurer.

Chapter 12.
CONGREGATION COUNCIL

C12.01. The voting membership of the Congregation Council shall consist of the pastor(s) and not more than fifteen members of the congregation. Any voting member of the congregation may be elected, subject only to the limitation on the length of continuous service permitted in that office. A member's place on the Congregation Council shall be declared vacant if the member a) ceases to be a voting member of this congregation or b) is absent from two successive regular meetings of the Congregation Council without cause.

C12.02. Each year the congregational council shall nominate and elect by written ballot twice the number of council persons to be elected and present names to the congregation at its annual meeting. The congregation has the privilege of nominating up to the number of council persons to be elected. A simple majority shall constitute an election.

C12.03. At the first meeting in each calendar year the Congregation Council shall elect a President, Vice President, and a Secretary for a term of one year, neither shall immediately succeed him/herself in office.

C12.04. The members of the Congregation Council except the pastor(s) shall be elected by written ballot to serve for three years or until their successors are elected. Their terms shall begin January 1 following Annual Congregational Meeting at which they are elected and shall not be eligible to commence another term until the expiration of twelve months after the completion of the prior term.

C12.05. Should a member's place on the Congregation Council be declared vacant, the Congregation Council shall elect, by majority vote, a successor until the next annual meeting.

C12.06. The Congregation Council shall have general oversight of the life and activities of this congregation, and in particular its worship life, to the end that everything be done in accordance with the Word of God and the faith and practice of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. The duties of the Congregation Council shall include the following:

a. To lead this congregation in stating its mission, to do long-range planning, to set goals and priorities, and to evaluate its activities in light of its mission and goals.
b. To seek to involve all members of this congregation in worship, learning, witness, service, and support.
c. To oversee and provide for the administration of this congregation to enable it to fulfill its functions and perform its mission.
d. To maintain supportive relationships with the pastor(s) and staff and help them annually to evaluate the fulfillment of their calling, appointment, or employment.
e. To be examples individually and corporately of the style of life and ministry expected of all baptized persons.
f. To promote a congregational climate of peace and goodwill and, as differences and conflicts arise, to endeavor to foster mutual understanding.
g. To arrange for pastoral service during the sickness or absence of the pastor.
h. To emphasize partnership with the synod and churchwide units of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America as well as cooperation with other congregations, both Lutheran and non-Lutheran, subject to established policies of the synod and the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.
i. To recommend and encourage the use of program resources produced or approved by the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.
j. To nominate voting members of the congregation for Congregation Council as set forth in the By-Laws.

C12.07. The Congregation Council shall be responsible for the financial and property matters of this congregation.

a. The Congregation Council shall be the board of trustees of this congregation, and as such shall be responsible for maintaining and protecting its property and the management of its business and fiscal affairs. It shall have the powers and be subject to the obligations that pertain to such boards under the laws of the State of North Carolina, except as otherwise provided herein.
b. The Congregation Council shall not have the authority to buy, sell, or encumber real property unless specifically authorized to do so by a meeting of the congregation.
c. The Congregation Council may enter into contracts of up to $2500.00 for items not included in the budget.
d. The Congregation Council shall prepare an annual budget for adoption by this congregation, shall supervise the expenditure of funds in accordance therewith following its adoption, and may incur obligations in excess of the anticipated receipts only after approval by a Congregation Meeting. The budget shall include this congregation's full indicated share in support of the wider ministry being carried on in partnership with the synod and churchwide organization.

e. The Congregation Council shall ascertain that the financial affairs of this congregation are being conducted efficiently, giving particular attention to the prompt payment of all obligations and to the regular forwarding of benevolence monies to the synodical treasurer.

f. The Congregation Council shall be responsible for this congregation's investments and its total insurance program.

C12.08. The Congregation Council shall see that the provisions of this constitution and its bylaws and the continuing resolutions are carried out.

C12.09. The Congregation Council shall conduct an annual review of the membership roster in furthance of section 8.05 e.

C12.10. The Congregation Council shall be responsible for the appointment and supervision of the salaried lay workers of this congregation.

C12.11. The Congregation Council shall submit a comprehensive report to this congregation annually.

C12.12. The Congregation Council shall normally meet once a month. Special meetings may be called by the pastor or the president, and shall be called at the request of at least one-half of its members. Notice of each special meeting shall be given to all who are entitled to be present.

C12.13. A quorum for the transaction of business shall consist of a majority of the members of the Congregation Council, including the pastor or interim pastor, except when such person requests or consents to be absent and has given prior approval to an agenda of routine matters which shall be the only business of the meeting.

Chapter 13.
CONGREGATIONAL COMMITTEES

C13.01. The officers of this congregation and the pastor shall constitute the Executive Committee.

C13.02. When a pastoral vacancy occurs, a Call Committee of at least six voting members shall be elected by the Congregation Council. Term of office will terminate at installation of the newly-called pastor.

C13.03. Other congregation committees may be formed as the need arises, by decision of the Congregation Council and set forth in the By-Laws.

Chapter 14.
ORGANIZATIONS WITHIN THE CONGREGATION

C14.01. All organizations within the congregation shall exist to aid it in ministering to its members and to all whom it can reach with the Gospel of Christ. As outgrowths and expressions of the congregation's life, the organizations are subject to its oversight and direction. The congregation at its meetings or the Congregation Council shall determine their policies, guide their activities and receive reports concerning their membership, work and finances.

C14.02. Special interest groups, other than the congregational units of the official auxiliaries of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, may be organized only after authorization has been given by the Congregation Council.

Chapter 15.
DISCIPLINE OF MEMBERS

C15.01. Denial of the Christian faith as described in this constitution, conduct grossly unbecoming a member of the Church of Christ, or persistent trouble-making in this congregation are sufficient cause for discipline of a member. Prior to disciplinary action, reconciliation will be attempted following Matthew 18:15-17, proceeding through these successive steps: a) private admonition by the pastor, b) admonition by the pastor in the presence of two or three witnesses, and c) citation to appear before the Congregation Council.

C15.02. A member charged with the offense shall appear before the Congregation Council having received a written notice, specifying the exact charges that have been made against the member, at least 10 days prior to the meeting.

C15.03. Should the allegations be sustained by a two-thirds majority vote of the members of the Congregation Council and renewed admonition prove ineffectual, the council shall impose one of the following disciplinary actions:

a. censure before the council or congregation;
b. suspension from membership for a definite period of time;
c. exclusion from membership in this congregation.

Disciplinary actions b. and c. shall be delivered to the member in writing.

C15.04. The member against whom disciplinary action has been taken by the Congregation Council shall have the right to appeal the decision to the Synod Council. Such right may not be abridged and the decision of the Synod Council shall be final.

C15.05. Disciplinary actions may be reconsidered and revoked by the Congregation Council upon receipt of a) evidence that injustice has been done or b) evidence of repentance and amendment.

Chapter 16.
AMENDMENTS

C16.01. Amendments to this constitution may be proposed by at least 33% voting members or by the Congregation Council. Proposals must be filed in writing with the Congregation Council 60 days before formal consideration by this congregation at its regular or special meeting called for that purpose. The Congregation Council shall notify the members of the proposal with their recommendations at least 30 days in advance of the meeting.

C16.02. A proposed amendment to this constitution shall:
a. be approved at a properly called meeting according to this constitution by a majority vote of those present and voting;
b. be ratified without change at the next annual meeting by a two-thirds majority vote of those present and voting; and
c. have the effective date included in the resolution and noted in the constitution.

C16.03. Any amendments to this constitution shall be sent by the secretary of this congregation to the synod. The amendment shall become effective within 120 days from the date of the receipt of the notice by the synod unless the synod informs this congregation that the amendment is in conflict with the constitution and bylaws of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, or the constitution of the N.C. Synod.

Chapter 17.
CONTINUING RESOLUTIONS

C17.01. The Congregation Council may enact continuing resolutions which describe the function of the various committees or organizations of this congregation.

C17.02. Continuing resolutions shall be enacted or amended by a two-thirds vote of all voting members of the Congregation Council.

Chapter 18
BYLAWS

C18.01. This congregation may adopt bylaws. No bylaw may conflict with this constitution.

C18.02. Bylaws may be adopted or amended at any legally called meeting of this congregation with a quorum present by a majority vote of those voting members present and voting.

C18.03. Changes to the bylaws may be proposed by any voting member provided, however, that such additions or amendments be submitted in writing to the Congregation Council at least 60 days before a regular or special Congregation Meeting called for that purpose and that the Congregation Council notify the members of the proposal with its recommendations at least 30 days in advance of the Congregation Meeting.

C18.04. Approved changes to the bylaws shall be sent by the secretary of this congregation to the synod.

BY-LAWS
CONGREGATIONAL MEETINGS

Section l. The annual meeting of the congregation as required by the constitution shall be conducted during the ll:00 service on the 3rd Sunday in November of each year.

Section 2. At the annual meeting members of the Congregation Council shall be elected, and any other business authorized by the council shall be conducted.

Section 3. Annual reports of pastor, treasurers, and auxiliaries shall be made once each year and presented.

Section 4. The Lay President or Vice President of the congregation shall preside over said annual meeting, which shall be called to order at 11:00 a.m. for the purpose of placing names in nomination for the election of Congregation Council members and other elections for office on the agenda for such meeting. Upon the closing of all nominations, ballots shall be recessed and collected by the duly appointed tellers. Upon the collection of said ballots, the meetings shall be adjourned until the conclusion of worship, unless prior thereto the chief teller shall report to the Lay President or Vice-President that a run-off election is required. The Lay President or Vice-President shall as soon as practical upon receiving such notice resume the meeting for the purpose of distributing and collecting such additional ballot or ballots as are required. All other matters of business shall be conducted immediately subsequent to the conclusion of the worship service, which shall be structured by the pastor in such fashion so that the general business session of the meeting commences not later than 12:00 noon.

THE CONGREGATION COUNCIL

Section 1. The responsibilities of the Congregation Council for fostering faithful membership shall include:

a. proper instruction in the Word of God and the teaching of the Lutheran Church prior to reception as confirmed members;

b. transfer of membership to another Lutheran congregation or the issuing of a certificate of standing and/or release to another evangelical congregation at the request of the confirmed member; [Such release of baptized but un-confirmed children should be at the request of their parents or legal guardians.]

c. encouraging members who move from the community which the congregation serves to transfer to a Lutheran congregation which can serve them effectively and in which they can participate regularly.

d. continuing concern and conscientious pastoral care for members, in an effort to encourage fulfillment of their duties and responsibilities, when they do not partake of Holy Communion, support the church with their offerings, or appear to desire to participate in the life and worship of the congregation. When such members have failed to receive Holy Communion or to make a contribution of record for a period of one calendar year, they may be removed from the roll of members by the Congregation Council. This procedure will take place after such members have been counseled about the matter, if possible. Such persons who have been removed from the roll of members shall remain persons for whom the church has a continuing pastoral concern.

Section 2. The congregation may elect two confirmed youth members to the Congregation Council ex officio with voice and no vote to serve a term of one year. One female and one male confirmed member may be elected each year subject only to the ability to serve a full year, January 1 to December 31, and not be eighteen years of age before election.

OFFICERS

Section 1. The president and the vice-president shall be chosen from the membership of the Congregation Council. The other officers, if not members of the council, shall be accorded the privilege of voice without vote in its meetings.

Section 2. All officers shall be voting members of the congregation. If any of them ceases to be such, that office shall at once be declared vacant by the council, which shall fill the vacancy for the unexpired term.

Section 3. The president shall preside at meetings of the congregation and the Congregation Council, except as otherwise provided herein. In the event of the president's inability to serve, the vice-president shall preside.

Section 4. The secretary shall keep accurate minutes of all meetings of the congregation and of the council in a volume provided by the congregation, which shall be preserved permanently in its archives.

Section 5. The treasurer(s) shall keep the books of account of the congregation; and shall receive all funds and disburse them on proper orders, making remittance of benevolence receipts to the treasurer of the synod.

Section 6. The treasurer(s) shall make written report of all financial transactions to the Congregation Council monthly and to the congregation, together with a satisfactory audit, annually. All financial officers shall give corporate surety, in amounts determined by the Congregation Council, for which the premium shall be paid by the congregation. Fidelity coverage provided by the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America shall be deemed a fulfillment of this requirement.

COMMITTEES AND BOARDS

Section 1. The Worship Committee shall assist the Congregation Council in seeing that the services of God's house are conducted regularly and in accordance with the liturgy of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, that competent ushers are recruited and trained, and that hymnals and other devotional materials are provided and properly cared for. It shall supervise and strive to advance the welfare and effective service of the choirs of the congregation. It shall arrange for the care of paraments, vestments, and musical instruments, and, in consultation with the pastor, the organist, and the choir director, it shall furnish music supplies appropriate for use in the worship of a congregation of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

Section 2. The Christian Education Committee in association with the pastor, shall oversee the conduct and promotion of the school(s) and the activities of all organizations within the congregation. It shall encourage the use of teaching and worship materials published or approved by the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, and to seek to introduce the Church's periodicals and books of family devotion into the homes of the congregation. One of the primary aims of the Christian Education Committee shall be to bring the call to the ministry of the Gospel and to other full-time church vocations to the attention of qualified youth of the congregation.

Section 3. The Youth Ministry Committee shall promote and oversee the programs of the church which minister to the needs and activities of the youth members of the church. This committee shall specifically provide and supervise advisors for the youth organization of the church.

Section 4. The Nursery Committee shall supervise the nursery and its use within the congregation. It shall recommend the needs of the nursery and shall provide a safe, clean environment for nursery age children.

Section 5. The Witness Committee shall stimulate and lead all members of the congregation to reawaken the spiritually indifferent, to reach others, and to witness to others who are as yet unwon with the Gospel and attach them to Christ's Church. To this end, the committee shall devote itself to deepening spiritual life and shall periodically study the congregation in the context of its surrounding community.

Section 6. The Service Committee shall be to extend Christian compassion and helpfulness to the ill, the aged, the orphaned, the underprivileged, and the imprisoned, and, in general, to persons of all ages in need of aid in body or soul. It shall strive to enlist in these efforts as many as possible of the individual members and organization of the congregation. This committee shall further have the duty to study social conditions, primarily in the local community, in order to bring the cleansing and healing light of Christian truth to bear upon critical problems through thoughtful Christian discussion of facts and issues.

Section 7. The Finance and Stewardship Committee, of which the Treasurer shall be a member, ex-officio, shall prepare a draft budget for the succeeding year, including this congregation's full benevolence share in support of the wider ministry being carried on in its behalf by the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America and the Synod and shall submit such a draft budget to the Congregation Council for its action and later presentation to a congregational meeting. The committee shall exercise oversight of all the financial affairs of the congregation. It shall, subject to the approval of the Congregation Council, be responsible for the congregation's investments and its total insurance program. It shall provide for annual audits of the congregational accounts, schools, and organizations of the church, unless said requirement shall be waived as to any congregational organization by the Congregation Council. It shall further be the duty of the committee to evoke and promote the expression of Christian faith in daily living; to uplift the need for involvement of the Christian use of time; to promote the use of personal God-given talents; to teach the Christian use of money; to diffuse knowledge of the congregation's local, national, and worldwide ministries; and to lead all its members to higher levels of proportionate giving for the Lord's work. This committee shall also be responsible for the annual Every Member Response and other congregational efforts which lead to informed and grateful giving.

Section 8. The Memorial Committee promotes and receives special gifts given in honor or memory of individuals or for special purposes. It will receive such gifts, place monetary gifts into an appropriate savings account, and from time to time recommend to the Congregation Council plans for the use of undesignated gifts. With respect to designated gifts, it will report to the Congregation Council the receipts of such gifts and upon approval of the Congregation Council, will accept such designated gifts and implement the designated purpose of a gift.

Section 9. The Property Committee shall see to the proper maintenance and protection of all property of the congregation and shall take care that the same is kept in good repair.

Section 10. The Personnel Committee shall continuously assess the requirements for staff support for the congregation, develop job descriptions and recommend positions to be authorized by the Congregation Council or the congregation, interview prospective employees for vacant positions, and recommend qualified applicants to the Congregation Council. Annually to report to the Congregation Council on the performance of duties of each employee of the congregation, making such recommendations as to continuation of employment, salary or wages, and changes to job descriptions as may be appropriate. Counsel with employees of the congregation regarding any matter pertinent to their employment with Calvary Lutheran Church, offering whatever support and advice may be appropriate to the situation. Specifically, the duties of this committee include personnel matters related to the Pastor or Pastors of the congregation, as well as to all others employed by Calvary Lutheran Church, either full or part-time.

Section 11. The Endowment Board consisting of five voting members of the congregation shall be elected for the purpose of overseeing such funds as may be contributed to the church endowment fund as defined by and governed by The Endowment Constitution adopted by the congregation on December 9, 1990.

19. The name "MacLAUGHLIN" is also spelled "McLaughlin" quite a number of places, including records and photo identifications, both at Calvary and at St. James. Rev. MacLAUGHLIN always used the "Mac" when signing his name. When his two sons were students at Mt. Pleasant Collegiate Institute, they also used the "Mac", as evidenced by extant yearbooks (Tour Path), but it is noted that Charles' family had started using "Mc" by the time the 1944 Concord telephone directory was published, and Charles' children used "Mc" when in Concord High School. His name is spelled "Mac" in Life Sketches of Lutheran Ministers. Reprinted by permission, NC Synod - ELCA.
